Re: Fiscal Year (FY) 2013-14 Juvenile Accountability Block Grants (JABG) Funding

The Board of State and Community Corrections (BSCC) is pleased to announce the federal JABG funding for FY 2013-14. The Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention has posted the JABG funding for California, which includes the direct allocations for 26 local jurisdictions. This year, the federal allocation amount experienced a significant reduction from that received in the FY 2012-13 allocation. To help offset this reduction, local jurisdictions that meet the threshold for receiving a direct allocation will receive an additional amount of funding (see attached). This comes as a result of an unspent balance in discretionary JABG funding and if unused, these funds revert back to the federal government rather than directly benefiting the California local programs that qualify for JABG funding. In an attempt to maximize the fiscal support of local programs, these funds are being redirected to serve their intended purpose. Although this enhancement was available to augment the FY 2012-13 allocation and is available again this year, it should be considered as a one-time funding opportunity and is dependent upon unspent discretionary JABG funds available year-to-year.

Attached to this letter is the FY 2013-14 application packet for those jurisdictions that are eligible to apply for a direct allocation. The application packet can also be accessed from the BSCC website at <http://www.bscc.ca.gov/>

The FY 2013-14 application will be similar in format to that of last year's application document. The funding cycle for this program is a 12-month period beginning July 1, 2013 and ending June 30, 2014.

As in previous years, a qualifying unit of local government may waive its right to a direct subgrant award and request that the funds be awarded to, and expended for its benefit by, a larger or contiguous unit of local government.

California's State Advisory Committee on Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (SACJJDP), which oversees the use of federal funds administered by BSCC, identified three priority areas in their new three-year Strategic Plan on which California is to focus its efforts. The three priority areas are: (1) Disproportionate Minority Contact (DMC); (2) Evidence-Based Practices; and, (3) a strategy to support efforts to develop and strengthen services, programs, and policies that promote positive outcomes for youth, their families, and communities. The SACJJDP encourages JABG recipients to align the use of their direct allocation with the three priority areas that are identified in the SACJJDP's Strategic Plan.

As in the past, grantees will be asked to support California's efforts to expand the knowledge of DMC by attending a one-day regional training. Grantees will be notified when registration information regarding the date, time and location of the regional training becomes available.

Should you have questions regarding this funding notice, please contact the JABG Coordinator, Colleen Stoner, at (916) 324-9385; colleen.stoner@bscc.ca.gov.
