OJJDP FY 2017 Title II Formula Grants Program (CFDA #16.540)

A. Program Description

Overview

The OJJDP FY 2017 Title II Formula Grants Program will support state and local efforts to plan, establish, operate, coordinate, and evaluate policies and projects, directly or through grants and contracts with public and private agencies, for the development of more effective education, training, research, prevention, diversion, treatment, and rehabilitation programs and reform efforts in delinquency prevention and juvenile justice system improvement. The Formula Grants Program is authorized under the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act (JJDP Act) of 1974, as amended, at 42 U.S.C. 5631–5633. Pursuant to Part B of Title II of the JJDP Act, to receive formula grants, states must submit a plan for carrying out their purposes applicable to a 3-year period. This announcement contains instructions applicable to the FY 2017 Title II Formula Grants application and update of the comprehensive FY 2015 3-Year Plan.

Program-Specific Information

This announcement provides guidance for the FY 2017 update to the FY 2015 3-Year Plan, which is composed of a programmatic plan for addressing the state's priority youth justice needs and problems, and for the compliance-related information that is to be submitted separately: plans for compliance with the four core requirements of the JJDP Act,<sup>2</sup> the state's compliance monitoring plan, and the compliance data report.

Important notes: States must submit their compliance and disproportionate minority contact (DMC) plans, compliance and Relative Rate Index (RRI) data, and supporting documentation for the period October 1, 2015, to September 30, 2016, electronically to OJJDP's online compliance reporting tool, separately from this application and no later than February 28, 2017.<sup>3</sup> Appendices G and H provide details regarding what states should include in the compliance and DMC plan submissions. Applicants must comply with the 28 statutory requirements of the state plan under 42 U.S.C. 5633(a), including the 4 core requirements (refer to Appendix I). If a state fails to provide information or assurances in response to each of the 28 requirements, OJJDP may deem the state ineligible for award or may place special conditions on the award that would deny the state access to formula grant funds.

Goals, Objectives, and Deliverables

OJJDP was established to support and guide states and localities as they work to prevent delinquency and involvement of youth with the justice system and to improve their juvenile justice systems and services. OJJDP envisions a nation where our children are healthy, educated, and free from violence. If they come into contact with the juvenile justice system, the contact should be rare, fair, and beneficial to them.

As such, OJJDP is committed to the continued evolution of our nation's juvenile justice system to one where children and youth come in contact only when deemed necessary to maintain community safety and protection, a system that is free of racial and ethnic disparities, a system where all due process protections are fairly and equitably afforded to every child and youth in its care, and a system that ensures accountability and provides developmentally appropriate, trauma-informed, and properly tailored treatment, rehabilitation, education, and well-being supports to the children and youth being served.

The purpose of the FY 2017 Formula Grants Program solicitation is twofold:

1. Support creation of an overarching, developmentally appropriate, and trauma-informed framework for states to use to inform and connect youth justice work to the development of individual and multiagency comprehensive state plans that support the well-being of all youth.
2. Give specific instructions for providing updates to the 2015 3-Year Plan to achieve the Formula Grants Program goals.

In support of OJJDP's vision and in accord with the purpose of this solicitation, OJJDP's Formula Grants Program aims to enhance states' capacity to:

1. Prevent juvenile delinquency.
2. Protect, support, and ensure the fair treatment of youth who come in contact with the juvenile justice system and work to eliminate racial and ethnic disparities at all decision and contact points.
3. Support the well-being of youth involved or at risk of being involved in the juvenile justice system.
4. Develop and sustain state-level juvenile justice system reform to improve positive youth outcomes.
5. Ensure compliance with the requirements of the JJDP Act.

OJJDP supports states in their efforts to address the causes for the disproportionate number of youth of color in the juvenile justice system and to identify new and innovative ways they can achieve racial equity and fairness; increase the availability and types of developmentally appropriate evidence-based prevention and intervention programs and practices; increase the number of evidence-based programs and practices to reduce the number of youth in custody and the number of youth who come in contact with the juvenile justice system; and improve the juvenile justice system through policy and practice reforms, professional development, and full participation of youth and families in the analyses of problem areas and development of solutions and assessment of results.

The Goals, Objectives, and Deliverables are directly related to the performance measures set out in the table in Section D. Application and Submission Information, under "Program Narrative."

OJJDP encourages states to review the recommendations from the National Research Council's Reforming Juvenile Justice: A Developmental Approach and Implementing Juvenile Justice Reform, the Attorney General's National Task Force on Children Exposed to Violence, the Attorney General's Advisory Committee on American Indian/Alaska Native Children Exposed to Violence, the Correctional Education Guidance Package, and the School Discipline Consensus Project and consider how to incorporate them into their 3-year plans. Additionally, OJJDP encourages states to review policy and practice on solitary confinement of youth with mental illness, especially those with disabilities.

Overview of Plan Requirements

This application/state plan is to update the FY 2015 Comprehensive 3-Year Plan. The applicant must describe progress made in each section since submission of the FY 2015 Title II plan and the 2016 update.

States' update to their 3-Year Plans must:

1. Demonstrate the applicant fulfills the 28 statutory requirements of the state plan listed in 42 U.S.C. 5633(a) and provide specific status of the state's compliance with the four core requirements of the JJDP Act.<sup>4</sup>

Note: If a state fails to provide information or assurances in response to each of the 28 requirements, OJJDP may deem the state ineligible for award or may place special conditions on the award that would deny the state access to formula grant funds. Refer to Appendix I of this solicitation for a listing of these requirements.

2. Provide an overview of state efforts and plans to promote youth development and well-being and prevent negative consequences, including delinquency, and explain how the youth justice work funded through this award fits into the state's overall efforts. (See Coordination of state efforts, page 14.)
3. Describe what the designated state agency is doing to partner with other, nonjustice system agencies and stakeholders who have a vested interest in or influence to enhance, leverage, and expand the work in the juvenile justice arena. (See Coordination of state efforts, page 14.)
4. Address the status of planned reforms and cost-cutting and reinvestment efforts to limit the number of youth who come under the jurisdiction of the justice system, decrease inappropriate out-of-home placements, and put in place reforms to achieve equity in decisionmaking (as measured by reductions in racial, ethnic, gender, and sexual orientation/identity-related disparities). (See Implementation (activities and services), page 14.)

<sup>4</sup> Note: As noted on pages 4 and 7, states will separately submit compliance and DMC data and supporting documentation no later than February 28, 2017, to OJJDP's compliance monitoring tool. States may request an extension for one additional month—to March 31—if they can show good cause for the extension.

5. Separately from this application, states must submit their compliance and DMC plans, compliance and RRI data, and supporting documentation for the period October 1, 2015, to September 30, 2016, electronically to OJJDP's online compliance reporting tool no later than February 28, 2017.<sup>5</sup> Appendices G and H provide details regarding what states should include in these compliance and DMC plan submissions.

Equitable Access to OJJDP-funded Programs

OJJDP promotes an unbiased juvenile justice system in which all youth are treated fairly and have equal access to the services and programs they need. Research indicates that failure to provide equitable treatment may perpetuate and exacerbate a cycle of arrest and incarceration that disproportionately impacts vulnerable youth. OJJDP may give priority consideration to applications that document the applicant's capacity to serve all vulnerable youth. This includes applicants' capacity to serve youth without regard to their race, color, national origin, religion, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression. Such capacity may be documented by articulating a plan for meeting the needs of all youth or by demonstrating a record of such service. Applicants should also review the OJP Standard Assurances for information about the applicable nondiscrimination provisions.

Evidence-Based Programs or Practices

OJP strongly emphasizes the use of data and evidence in policymaking and program development in criminal justice, juvenile justice, and crime victim services. OJP is committed to:

- Improving the quantity and quality of evidence OJP generates.
- Integrating evidence into program, practice, and policy decisions within OJP and the field.
- Improving the translation of evidence into practice.

OJP considers programs and practices to be evidence-based when their effectiveness has been demonstrated by causal evidence, generally obtained through one or more outcome evaluations. Causal evidence documents a relationship between an activity or intervention (including technology) and its intended outcome, including measuring the direction and size of a change, and the extent to which a change may be attributed to the activity or intervention. Causal evidence depends on the use of scientific methods to rule out, to the extent possible, alternative explanations for the documented change. The strength of causal evidence, based on the factors described above, will influence the degree to which OJP considers a program or practice to be evidence-based. Applicants may use the OJP CrimeSolutions.gov website and the OJJDP Model Programs Guide website to find information about evidence-based programs in criminal justice, juvenile justice, and crime victim services.

B. Federal Award Information

Information about each state's respective FY 2017 allocation will be available online here. OJJDP will notify juvenile justice specialists when the FY 2017 allocations are posted online. For planning purposes, use the FY 2016 award amount. Per the following chart:

<sup>5</sup> States may request an extension for one additional month—to March 31—if they can show good cause for the extension.

Funding Year	Budget Period	Period of Performance
FY 2015	Oct. 1, 2015 to Sept. 30, 2018	Oct. 1, 2015 to Sept. 30, 2018
FY 2016	Oct. 1, 2016 to Sept. 30, 2019	Oct. 1, 2016 to Sept. 30, 2019
FY 2017	Oct. 1, 2017 to Sept. 30, 2020	Oct. 1, 2017 to Sept. 30, 2020

The FY 2017 award will be a new award with a new grant number and a 3-year budget and period of performance from October 1, 2017, to September 30, 2020. States are to manage, monitor, and report on grant activities and programs under each grant number.

All awards are subject to the availability of appropriated funds and to any modifications or additional requirements that may be imposed by law.

A description of how OJJDP calculates the formula grant allocations may be found here.

Type of Award

OJJDP expects that any award under this solicitation will be made in the form of a grant. See Administrative, National Policy, and Other Legal Requirements, under Section F. Federal Award Administration Information, for a brief discussion of important statutes, regulations, and award conditions that apply to many (or in some cases, all) OJP grants.

Financial Management and System of Internal Controls

Award recipients and subrecipients (including recipients or subrecipients that are pass-through entities<sup>6</sup>) must, as described in the Part 200 Uniform Requirements<sup>7</sup> as set out at 2 C.F.R. 200.303:

- (a) Establish and maintain effective internal control over the Federal award that provides reasonable assurance that [the recipient (and any subrecipient)] is managing the Federal award in compliance with Federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of the Federal award. These internal controls should be in compliance with guidance in “Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government” issued by the Comptroller General of the United States and the “Internal Control Integrated Framework”, issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO).
- (b) Comply with Federal statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of the Federal awards.
- (c) Evaluate and monitor [the recipient’s (and any subrecipient’s)] compliance with statutes, regulations, and the terms and conditions of Federal awards.

<sup>6</sup> For purposes of this solicitation, the phrase “pass-through entity” includes any recipient or subrecipient that provides a subaward (“subgrant”) to carry out part of the funded award or program.

<sup>7</sup> The “Part 200 Uniform Requirements” means the DOJ regulation at 2 C.F.R Part 2800, which adopts (with certain modifications) the provisions of 2 C.F.R. Part 200.

- (d) Take prompt action when instances of noncompliance are identified including noncompliance identified in audit findings.
- (e) Take reasonable measures to safeguard protected personally identifiable information and other information the Federal awarding agency or pass-through entity designates as sensitive or [the recipient (or any subrecipient)] considers sensitive consistent with applicable Federal, state, local, and tribal laws regarding privacy and obligations of confidentiality.

To help ensure that applicants understand administrative requirements and cost principles, OJP encourages prospective applicants to enroll, at no charge, in the DOJ Grants Financial Management Online Training, available here.

Budget Information

Cost Sharing or Match Requirement

Pursuant to the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C.5632(c), states may use no more than 10 percent of their Formula Grants allocation for planning and administration. States that choose to use funds in this manner must indicate that choice in their state plans and attached budgets. States and units of local government must match, on an equal basis, any amount of federal funds that they expend or obligate for such purposes. States must identify the source of the match and how they will use match funds in their attached budget. (See Budget Detail Worksheet and Budget Narrative information, beginning on page 23.) States must satisfy this match requirement with cash. If a state's proposed match exceeds the required match amount, the additional match amount that is incorporated into the OJP-approved budget is also mandatory and subject to audit.

Preagreement Costs (also known as Preaward Costs)

Preagreement costs are costs incurred by the applicant prior to the start date of the period of performance of the grant award.

OJP does not typically approve preagreement costs; an applicant must request and obtain the prior written approval of OJP for all such costs. All such costs incurred prior to award and prior to approval of the costs are incurred at the sole risk of the applicant. (Generally, no applicant should incur project costs before submitting an application requesting federal funding for those costs.) Should there be extenuating circumstances that make it appropriate for OJP to consider approving preagreement costs, the applicant may contact the point of contact listed on the title page of this solicitation for the requirements concerning written requests for approval. If approved in advance by OJP, award funds may be used for preagreement costs, consistent with the recipient's approved budget and applicable cost principles. See the section on Costs Requiring Prior Approval in the DOJ Grants Financial Guide, for more information.

Prior Approval, Planning, and Reporting of Conference/Meeting/Training Costs

OJP strongly encourages every applicant that proposes to use award funds for any conference-, meeting-, or training-related activity (or similar event) to review carefully—before submitting an application—the OJP and DOJ policy and guidance on approval, planning, and reporting of such events, available at www.ojp.gov/financialguide/DOJ/PostawardRequirements/chapter3.10a.htm. OJP policy and guidance (1) encourage minimization of conference, meeting, and training costs; (2) require prior written approval (which may affect project timelines) of most conference, meeting, and training costs for cooperative agreement recipients, as well as some conference, meeting, and training costs for grant recipients; and (3) set cost limits, which include a general prohibition of all food and beverage costs.

Costs Associated with Language Assistance (if applicable)

If an applicant proposes a program or activity that would deliver services or benefits to individuals, the costs of taking reasonable steps to provide meaningful access to those services or benefits for individuals with limited English proficiency may be allowable. Reasonable steps to provide meaningful access to services or benefits may include interpretation or translation services, where appropriate.

For additional information, see the "Civil Rights Compliance" section under "Overview of Legal Requirements Generally Applicable to OJP Grants and Cooperative Agreements" in the OJP Funding Resource Center.

C. Eligibility Information

For eligibility information, see the title page.

For information on cost sharing or match requirements, see Section B. Federal Award Information.

D. Application and Submission Information

Important: Applicants must comply with the 28 statutory requirements of the state plan under 42 U.S.C. 5633(a), including the 4 core requirements. If a state fails to provide information or assurances in response to each of these 28 requirements, OJJDP may deem the state ineligible for award or may place special conditions on the award that may deny the state access to formula grant funds. Refer to Appendix I of this solicitation for a listing of these requirements.

What an Application Should Include

This section describes in detail what an application should include. An applicant should anticipate that failure to submit an application that contains all of the specified elements may negatively affect the review of the application; and, should a decision be made to make an award, it may result in the inclusion of award conditions that preclude the recipient from accessing or using award funds until the recipient satisfies the conditions and OJP makes the funds available.

An applicant may combine the Budget Narrative and the Budget Detail Worksheet in one document. However, if an applicant submits only one budget document, it must contain both narrative and detail information. Review the "Note on File Names and File Types" under How to Apply to be sure applications are submitted in permitted formats.

OJP strongly recommends that applicants use appropriately descriptive file names (e.g., "Program Narrative," "Budget Detail Worksheet and Budget Narrative," "Timelines," "Memoranda of Understanding," "Résumés") for all attachments. Also, OJP recommends that applicants include résumés in a single file.

1. Information To Complete the Application for Federal Assistance (SF-424)

The SF-424 is a required standard form used as a cover sheet for submission of preapplications, applications, and related information. GMS takes information from the applicant's profile to populate the fields on this form.

To avoid processing delays, applicants must include an accurate legal name on their SF-424. Current OJP award recipients, when completing the field for "Legal Name," should use the same legal name that appears on the prior year award document, which is also the legal name stored in OJP's financial system. On the SF-424, enter the legal name in box 5 and Employer Identification Number (EIN) in box 6 exactly as it appears on the prior year award document. Applicants with current awards must ensure that their GMS profile is current. If it is not current, they should submit a Grant Adjustment Notice (GAN) updating the information on their GMS profile prior to applying under this solicitation.

New applicants should enter the Official Legal Name and address of the applicant entity in box 5 and the EIN in box 6 of the SF-424. Applicants must attach official legal documents to their applications (e.g., articles of incorporation, 501(c)(3), etc.) to confirm the legal name, address, and EIN entered into the SF-424.

Intergovernmental Review: This solicitation ("funding opportunity") is subject to Executive Order 12372. An applicant may find the names and addresses of state Single Points of Contact (SPOCs) at the following website: www.whitehouse.gov/omb/grants\_spoc/. If the state appears on the SPOC list, the applicant must contact the state SPOC to find out about, and comply with, the state's process under E.O. 12372. In completing the SF-424, an applicant whose state appears on the SPOC list must make the appropriate selection in response to question 19 once the applicant has complied with its state E.O. 12372 process. (An applicant whose state does not appear on the SPOC list should answer question 19 by selecting the response that the "Program is subject to E.O. 12372 but has not been selected by the state for review.")

2. Project Abstract

Applications should include a high-quality abstract that summarizes the proposed project in 400 words or less. Project abstracts should be—

- Written for a general public audience.
- Submitted as a separate attachment with "Project Abstract" as part of its file name.
- Single-spaced, using a standard 12-point font (Times New Roman) with 1-inch margins.

The abstract should briefly describe the formula grant program's purpose, the population to be served, and the activities that the applicant will implement to achieve the program's goals and objectives. The abstract should describe how the applicant will measure progress toward these goals. The abstract should indicate whether the applicant will use any portion of the project budget to conduct research, as described in Note on Project Evaluations on page 21.

As a separate attachment, the project abstract will not count against the page limit for the program narrative.

3. Program Narrative

This document should include updates to the 2015 Comprehensive 3-Year Plan. The applicant must describe progress made in each section since submission of the FY 2015 Title II application and FY 2016 update. Enter a heading for each section in ALL CAPS called "FY 2017 UPDATES" to highlight activities that have occurred since the state submitted its FY 2015 Title II application and 2016 update. A statement of "No Change" or the like is insufficient. Where applicants modified components of the 3-year plan since they submitted their FY 2015 Title II application, they must provide sufficient information and data to explain the changes.

a. Statement of the problem. The applicant must address the following:

1. System description: Structure and function of the juvenile justice system. In no more than two pages, summarize the organization, responsibilities, and functions of the major components of the formal juvenile justice system. (Generally, this would include law enforcement, juvenile detention and other pretrial programs, courts, corrections, and community-based programs for delinquent youth who commit status offenses.) Describe how the system processes youth and note if any major state or local programs operate outside of the formal juvenile justice system that directly affect delinquency prevention or reduction. If the state's particular situation warrants additional space, provide the expanded description as an appendix to the 3-year plan submission.
2. Youth crime analysis and needs and problem statements. States should base this analysis on the system description in section 1 above and include conditions they consider or determine to be relevant to addressing juvenile justice and delinquency prevention problems.

(a) Analysis of youth crime problems. As part of the 3-year planning process, states are required to analyze current youth crime problems along with juvenile justice and delinquency prevention and educational needs in their jurisdiction, to include any geographical area in which an American Indian tribe performs law enforcement functions. Also, as part of the planning process, states are required to provide plans for (1) services for gender-specific services for the prevention and treatment of delinquency, (2) services for the prevention and treatment of delinquency in rural areas, and (3) mental health services to youth in the juvenile justice system.

As such, the youth crime analysis should summarize the number and characteristics of youth handled at each stage of the process from arrest through disposition, the number and types of offenses, and trends in youth delinquency and crime problems. States must provide a minimum of 3 years of recent data for the characteristics listed below and the most recent data available by county, parish, or city. If this information is not available, states must describe the problem in obtaining the data and their plans to rectify the situation, including a discussion of how they will resource efforts to obtain the data.

Following are the minimum requirements for the youth crime analysis:

- i. Juvenile arrests by offense type, gender, age, and race.
- ii. Number and characteristics (by offense type, gender, race, and age) of juveniles referred to juvenile court, a probation agency, or special intake unit for allegedly committing a delinquent or status offense.
- iii. Number of cases handled informally (nonpetitioned) and formally (petitioned) by gender, race, and type of disposition (e.g., diversion, probation, commitment, residential treatment).
- iv. Number of delinquent and status offenders admitted, by gender and race, to juvenile detention facilities and adult jails and lockups (if applicable).
- v. Trend data and other social, economic, legal, and organizational conditions considered relevant to delinquency prevention programming.

(b) State priority juvenile justice needs/problem statements. Based on the youth crime analysis, states are to develop a series of needs/problem statements. Assign a priority ranking to each, and list and describe in order of priority. Use qualitative and quantitative information to describe the magnitude, seriousness, rate of change, persons affected, and other relevant aspects of the need or problem. Identify the nature, extent, and effect of system response; make projections based on historical precedent; and describe the origins of the need or problem referenced. Applicants should explicitly link the needs/problem statements to—

- i. The state's overarching priorities or goals that seek to promote youth well-being and successful transition to adulthood; protect children and youth; eliminate racial, ethnic, and gender-related disparities and ensure equity in treatment; and/or prevent delinquency.
- ii. The crime analysis.
- iii. Requirements of the JJDP Act.
- iv. Where possible, related socioeconomic factors.
- v. Other factors, such as the functions of the juvenile justice system and geographic location.

To summarize, needs/problem statements are clear and succinct summary statements that reflect the results of the analysis undertaken. Each does not necessarily represent all the analysis undertaken or all data collected for any given problem.

More importantly, these data-based needs/problem statements and their priority rankings provide the state with the basis for developing and updating its 3-year plan and budget for funding juvenile justice programs, excepting expenditures for planning and administration and state advisory group (SAG) allocations (see Appendix B, Formula Grants Program Areas 28 and 32, respectively).

b. Coordination of state efforts

1. Provide an overview of state efforts and plans to promote youth development and well-being and prevent negative consequences, including delinquency, and explain how the youth justice work funded through this award fits into the state's overall efforts.
2. Describe what the designated state agency is doing to partner with nonjustice system agencies, such as the foster care system for dual-system youth, and other stakeholders who have a vested interest in or influence to enhance, leverage, and expand the work in the juvenile justice arena.
3. Discuss challenges and plans to improve coordination and joint decisionmaking.

c. Goals and objectives. Goals are broad statements that identify the proposed plan's intended short- and long-term results, are derived from the crime analysis, and respond to the identified needs and problems. Objectives are more specific, actionable, and quantifiable statements that further define each goal and specify the means to measure program performance.

In this section, describe the state's goals and objectives and explain how the state proposes to accomplish them. For each goal and all of its subsidiary objectives that the FY 2017 Title II award will fund, identify the relevant program area or areas using the list of OJJDP's program area codes and titles in Appendix B, Formula Grants Program Areas. (Program areas are groups of projects or activities with common or similar goals and objectives.)

d. Implementation (activities and services). In this section, states must describe the activities, services, and projects proposed over the course of the 3-year plan to attain each goal and its subsidiary objectives. The narrative should be specific and concrete in elaborating how the state will achieve the goals and objectives.

States are also to address the status of planned reforms to narrow the front door to the juvenile justice system, decrease out-of-home placements, put in place reforms to achieve equity in decisionmaking (as measured by reductions in racial, ethnic, and gender-related disparities), and support a continuum of developmentally appropriate services. In doing so, states are strongly encouraged to give priority consideration to the following Formula Grants program areas:

- Aftercare/reentry (Program Area #1)
- Alternatives to detention (Program Area #3)
- School programs (Program Area #17)
- Disproportionate minority contact (reduction of racial and ethnic disparities) (Program Area #21)
- Diversion (Program Area #22)
- Gender-specific services (Program Area #23)
- Juvenile justice system improvement (reform) (Program Area #27)

In undertaking juvenile justice reforms, OJJDP strongly encourages states to consider:

1. Establishing policies and evidence-based programs that take into consideration the impact of trauma.
2. Building community trust by strengthening understanding and relationships between youth of color, their families, the communities in which they reside and law enforcement, prosecutors, and other representatives of the criminal and juvenile justice systems, and addressing the legal needs of children who enter the system.
3. Ensuring a continuum of culturally relevant and developmentally appropriate services for youth who are at risk of entering the juvenile justice system and youth who reside in or are exiting the system.
4. Using graduated sanctions applied appropriately and fairly to hold youth accountable.
5. Investing in professional development and cross-sector training, especially for law enforcement, school resource officers, prosecutors, probation staff, court officials, and school administrators and staff.
6. Providing incentives for joint problem solving and establishing and strengthening coordination with schools to improve school climate and ensure equitable and reasonable administration of discipline to increase student success.

Find information on how to keep students engaged in school and out of courts through application of positive school discipline approaches here. Find other information and resources at the website for the School Discipline Consensus Project.

Because of the critical importance of involving youth and families to attain positive outcomes for youth, OJJDP encourages states to explain how they will fully engage youth and families in analyses of problem areas, development of solutions, and assessment of results.

Finally, OJJDP encourages states to consider funding programs that will support state compliance with the final Prison Rape Elimination Act standards, which became effective August 20, 2012, available here.

Note: The 3-year plan must include provision of (1) gender-specific services for the prevention and treatment of youth delinquency, (2) services for the prevention and treatment of youth delinquency in rural areas, and (3) mental health services to youth in the juvenile justice system, including information on implementation and how the state is targeting those services to youth in the system who need them most. Refer to Analysis of youth crime problems, page 12.

e. Plans for compliance (See Appendixes G and H, Compliance and DMC Plans, for more specific instructions and guidance). States must submit their compliance and DMC plans, compliance and RRI data, and supporting documentation for the period October 1, 2015, to September 30, 2016, electronically to OJJDP's online compliance reporting tool separately from this application and no later than February 28, 2017.<sup>8</sup> Appendixes G and H provide details regarding what the states should include in these compliance and DMC plan submissions.

f. Additional requirements

- 1. State Advisory Group membership. The SAG shall consist of not less than 15 and not more than 33 members that the chief executive officer of the state appoints. At least one member shall be a locally elected official representing general purpose local government. At least one-fifth of the members shall be younger than 24 years old at the time of appointment. At least three members shall have been or currently be under the jurisdiction of the juvenile justice system. A majority of the members (including the chairperson) shall not be full-time employees of federal, state, or local government. The membership qualifications are described at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(3)(A) of the JJDP Act, as amended. (See Appendix D, Instructions to Complete the SAG Membership Table (with Sample Roster.) Pursuant to 28 C.F.R. 31.102, in the event that a state's SAG serves in a strictly advisory capacity, the state agency must, as an alternative, maintain a supervisory board (i.e., board of directors, commission, committee, council, or other policy board) with responsibility for supervising the preparation and administration of the 3-year plan and its implementation. As per 28 C.F.R. 31.103, this board must include the chairperson and at least two additional citizen members of the SAG. A citizen member is defined as any person who is not a full-time government employee or elected official.
- 2. Formula Grants program staff. The state must include in its application an organizational chart of the agency designated to implement the Formula Grants program; a list of the other programs that the designated agency or division administers; the staffing and management plan for the state agency/division implementing the Formula Grants program, including names, titles of staff, funding sources and state match, and percentage of time devoted to the Formula Grants program; and descriptions of the duties for the juvenile justice specialist and other juvenile justice and delinquency prevention staff.
- 3. Performance measures. OJP will require each successful applicant to submit specific performance measures data as part of its reporting under the award (see "General Information About Post-Federal Award Reporting Requirements" in Section F. Federal Award Administration Information). The performance measures correlate to the goals, objectives, and deliverables identified under "Goals, Objectives, and Deliverables" in Section A. Program Description.

<sup>8</sup> States may request an extension for one additional month—to March 31—if they can show good cause for the extension.

The application should describe the applicant's plan for collection of all of the performance measures data listed in the table below under “Data Recipient Provides,” should it receive funding.

Beginning with the October 1, 2016, to September 30, 2017, data collection period, states must collect and report data on the mandatory performance measures for each applicable program area for each year of the award period through the Data Reporting Tool. Although not required, states may collect and report on nonmandatory measures, if they choose.

Note on Project Evaluations

An applicant that proposes to use award funds through this solicitation to conduct project evaluations should be aware that certain project evaluations (such as systematic investigations designed to develop or contribute to generalizable knowledge) may constitute “research” for purposes of applicable DOJ human subjects protection regulations. However, project evaluations that are intended only to generate internal improvements to a program or service, or are conducted only to meet OJP’s performance measures data reporting requirements, likely do not constitute “research.” Each applicant should provide sufficient information for OJP to determine whether the particular project it proposes would either intentionally or unintentionally collect and/or use information in such a way that it meets the DOJ regulatory definition of research that appears at 28 C.F.R. Part 46 (“Protection of Human Subjects”).

Research, for the purposes of human subjects protection for OJP-funded programs, is defined as “a systematic investigation, including research development, testing and evaluation, designed to develop or contribute to generalizable knowledge.” 28 C.F.R. 46.102(d).

For additional information on determining whether a proposed activity would constitute research for purposes of human subjects protection, applicants should consult the decision tree in the “Research and the protection of human subjects” section of the “Requirements related to Research” webpage of the “Overview of Legal Requirements Generally Applicable to OJP Grants and Cooperative Agreements” available through the OJP Funding Resource Center. Every prospective applicant whose application may propose a research or statistical component also should review the “Data Privacy and Confidentiality Requirements” section on that web page.

g. Additional information. OJJDP encourages applicants to discuss or provide information regarding the following:

Collecting and sharing juvenile justice information.<sup>9</sup> To better understand the difficulties state agencies that administer the Formula Grants Program encounter in collecting and sharing juvenile justice information, OJJDP requests but does not require the following information and efforts:

1. Describe the state’s process for gathering juvenile justice information and data across state agencies—i.e., state departments of education and welfare, mental health services, and local law enforcement—and how the state makes this information available across agencies and incorporates the data into its comprehensive 3-Year Plan and Annual Plan updates.
2. Identify specific barriers the state encounters with the sharing of juvenile information on at-risk youth among state agencies, including local law enforcement—i.e., where state statute, regulation, or policy prohibits the sharing of this information.

4. Budget and Associated Documentation

Note: Applicants may combine the Budget Narrative and the Budget Detail Worksheet in one document. However, if an applicant submits only one budget document, it must contain both narrative and detail information. Review the “Note on File Names and File Types” under How To Apply to be sure applications are submitted in permitted formats.

OJP strongly recommends that applicants use appropriately descriptive file names (e.g., “Program Narrative,” “Budget Detail Worksheet and Budget Narrative,” “Timelines,” “Memoranda of Understanding,” “Résumés”) for all attachments. Also, OJP recommends that applicants include résumés in a single file.

Present total federal funds the state plans to use in each program area from its Formula Grants allocation, along with any expected state, local, or private funds:

Fiscal Year	Formula Grant Funds ($)	State/Local Funds ($)	Total ($) 2017
--------------------	---------------------------------	-------------------------------	------------------------

Applicants should provide a budget that (1) is complete, allowable, and cost effective in relation to the proposed activities; (2) shows the cost calculations demonstrating how they arrived at the total amount requested; and (3) provides a brief supporting narrative to link costs with project activities. The budget for this new award should account for the 3-year budget period of October 1, 2017, to September 30, 2020.

<sup>9</sup> This information is related to obligations specified in the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a) (26), (27), and (28): (a) Sharing public child welfare records with juvenile courts. To the extent practical, states are to implement a system to ensure that each juvenile court shall have access to and be aware of the public child welfare records (including child protective services records) generated within its jurisdiction for each youth before the court; (b) states are to establish policies and systems to incorporate child protective services records into juvenile justice records. States should establish systems to incorporate relevant child protective services records into juvenile justice records for purposes of establishing and implementing treatment plans for youth offenders; and (c) the application must provide an assurance that youth offenders whose placement is funded through Section 472 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 672) receive the protections specified in Section 471 of such Act (42 U.S.C. 671), including a case plan and case plan review as defined in Section 475 of such Act (42 U.S.C. 675).

Applicants should demonstrate in their budget narratives how they will maximize cost-effectiveness of grant expenditures. Budget narratives should generally describe cost effectiveness in relation to potential alternatives and the goals of the project. For example, a budget narrative should detail why planned in-person meetings are necessary or how technology and collaboration with outside organizations could be used to reduce costs, without compromising quality.

Applicants should explain how they calculated fringe benefits, how they estimated travel costs, why they must purchase particular items of equipment or supplies, and how they calculated overhead or indirect costs (if applicable). The budget narrative should justify the specific items listed in the budget detail worksheet (particularly supplies, travel, and equipment) and demonstrate that all costs are reasonable.

Note: The JJDP Act, at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(5), provides that unless the Administrator grants a waiver to any state in which the services for delinquent or other youth are organized primarily on a statewide basis, the state plan must provide that at least 66 and 2/3 percent of funds that the state receives under 42 U.S.C. 5632, reduced by the percentage (if any) that the state specifies under 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(25) and excluding funds made available to the state advisory group under 42 U.S.C. 5632, shall be expended as the JJDP Act specifies:

- A. Through programs of units of local government or combinations thereof, to the extent such programs are consistent with the State plan;
- B. Through programs of local private agencies, to the extent such programs are consistent with the state plan, except that direct funding of any local private agency by a state shall be permitted only if such agency requests such funding after it has applied for and been denied funding by any unit of local government or combination thereof; and
- C. To provide funds for programs of Indian tribes that perform law enforcement functions (as determined by the Secretary of the Interior) and that agree to attempt to comply with the requirements specified in paragraphs (11), (12), and (13), applicable to the detention and confinement of youth, an amount that bears the same ratio to the aggregate amount to be expended through programs referred to in subparagraphs (A) and (B) as the population younger than age 18 in the geographical areas in which such tribes perform such functions bears to the state population younger than age 18.

See Appendix C, Pass-Through Waiver Requirements, for additional information. For questions pertaining to budget and examples of allowable and unallowable costs, see the DOJ Grants Financial Guide.

a. Budget Detail Worksheet

This attachment should include the amount the state has budgeted for each program area it has identified to receive FY 2017 Formula Grant funds. See Appendix F for additional information. FY 2017 state allocations will be posted online here when available.

OJJDP will notify state juvenile justice specialists when the state allocation chart is available. For planning purposes, use the FY 2016 allocations. Funds allocated for planning and administration and the match requirement, the SAG, and the American Indian tribal pass-through (where applicable) are required line items (see Appendix F, Sample Budget Detail Worksheet). The budget worksheet must present a complete and detailed itemization of all proposed costs.

Planning and administration funds and match requirement. Pursuant to the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5632(c), states may use no more than 10 percent of their Formula Grant allocation for planning and administration. States that choose to use funds in this manner must indicate that choice in their state plans and attached budgets. States must match, on an equal basis, any amount of federal funds that they expend or obligate for such purposes. States must identify the source of the match and how they will use match funds in their attached budget. (See information in the Budget Detail Worksheet and Budget Narrative sections, beginning on page 23.) States must satisfy this match requirement with cash. If a state's proposed additional match exceeds the required match amount, the match amount that is incorporated into the OJP-approved budget is also mandatory and subject to audit.

SAG allocation. For planning and budget purposes, states may make as much as $20,000 (5 percent of the minimum annual allocation to any state) of their annual allocations available to assist the SAG. Territories may allocate up to $3,750 to assist the SAG.

State allocations and program areas. As required under the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(c), OJJDP will reduce a state's FY 2017 allocation by 20 percent for each of the core requirements with which the state was determined not to be in compliance for FY 2017 funding. States should plan their FY 2017 expenditures using the allocations that reflect any reductions required, based on their noncompliance with one or more of the core requirements. You may find the FY 2017 allocations here. The Formula Grants program areas can be found in Appendix B.

American Indian tribal pass-through. The required amount of the American Indian tribal pass-through represents the minimum amount a state must pass through to tribes that perform law enforcement functions and that agree to attempt to comply with the provisions of the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(11), (12), and (13) (the DSO, separation, and jail removal requirements). Although this amount is based on a statutory formula, in many instances it may be insufficient to support effective juvenile justice and delinquency prevention activities. Therefore, where appropriate, OJJDP encourages the states to pass through greater amounts. In addition, OJJDP advises states to encourage tribes to apply for a discretionary grant under OJP's Coordinated Tribal Assistance Solicitation. FY 2017 state pass-through amounts will be posted online here, when available. OJJDP will notify the state juvenile justice specialists at that time. For reference, the prior year American Indian tribal pass-through amount is available on the webpage here.

Note: Total costs that the state specifies in its complete budget must match the amount it provides in the "Estimated Funding" section of the "Project Information" screen in GMS. All funds listed in the budget will be subject to audit.

b. Budget Narrative

The budget narrative should thoroughly and clearly describe every category of expense listed in the Budget Detail Worksheet in Appendix F. Proposed budgets are expected to be complete, cost effective, and allowable (e.g., reasonable, allocable, and necessary for project activities). The budget narrative should be mathematically sound and correspond clearly with the information and figures provided in the Budget Detail Worksheet. The narrative should explain how the applicant estimated and calculated all costs, and how those costs are necessary to the completion of the proposed project. The narrative may include tables for clarification purposes but need not be in a spreadsheet format. The budget narrative and detail should be for the current award and describe costs by year. .

c. Information on Proposed Subawards (if any), as well as on Proposed Procurement Contracts (if any)

Applicants for OJP awards typically may propose to make subawards. Applicants also may propose to enter into procurement contracts under the award.

Whether—for purposes of federal grants administrative requirements—a particular agreement between a recipient and a third party will be considered a subaward or a procurement contract under the award is determined by federal rules and applicable OJP guidance. It is an important distinction, in part because the federal administrative rules and requirements that apply to subawards and to procurement contracts under awards differ markedly.

In general, the central question is the relationship between what the third party will do under its agreement with the recipient and what the recipient has committed (to OJP) to do under its award to further a public purpose (e.g., services the recipient will provide, products it will develop or modify, research or evaluation it will conduct). If a third party will provide some of the services the recipient has committed (to OJP) to provide, will develop or modify all or part of a product the recipient has committed (to OJP) to develop or modify, or conduct part of the research or evaluation the recipient has committed (to OJP) to conduct, OJP will consider the agreement with the third party a subaward for purposes of federal grants administrative requirements.

This will be true even if the recipient, for internal or other nonfederal purposes, labels or treats its agreement as a procurement, a contract, or a procurement contract. Neither the title nor the structure of an agreement determines whether the agreement—for purposes of federal grants administrative requirements—is a subaward or is instead a procurement contract under an award.

Additional guidance on the circumstances under which (for purposes of federal grants administrative requirements) an agreement constitutes a subaward as opposed to a procurement contract under an award, is available (along with other resources) on the OJP Part 200 Uniform Requirements webpage.

1. Information on proposed subawards

Pursuant to the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(21)(A), states shall, to the extent practicable, give priority in funding to evidence-based programs and activities. Further, under the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(21)(C), states shall not continue to fund a program if the subgrant recipient who carried out that program during the preceding 2-year period fails to demonstrate that the program achieved substantial success in meeting the goals specified in the original subgrant application. Applicants should describe the process that the state will use to ensure the implementation of the preceding requirements of the subgrant award process. Under the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(21)(B), states must submit an annual analysis/evaluation of programs and activities carried out under the plan and modifications in the plan, including the survey of state and local needs, that it considers necessary.

To enable local subgrantees to implement evidence-based programs, two websites—OJJDP's Model Programs Guide and OJP's CrimeSolutions.gov—have been developed. The Model Programs Guide and CrimeSolutions.gov are two resources that applicants may use to find information about evidence-based programs in juvenile justice, criminal justice, and crime victim services and enhance the likelihood of success for their programs.

A recipient of an OJP award may not make subawards ("subgrants") unless the recipient has specific federal authorization to do so. Unless an applicable statute or DOJ regulation specifically authorizes (or requires) subawards, a recipient must have authorization from OJP before it may make a subaward.

A particular subaward may be authorized by OJP because the recipient included a sufficiently detailed description and justification of the proposed subaward in the application as approved by OJP. If, however, a particular subaward is not authorized by federal statute or regulation, and is not sufficiently described and justified in the application as approved by OJP, the recipient will be required, post-award, to request and obtain written authorization from OJP before it may make the subaward.

If an applicant proposes to make one or more subawards to carry out the federal award and program, and those subawards are not specifically authorized (or required) by statute or regulation, the applicant should (1) identify (if known) the proposed subrecipient(s), (2) describe in detail what each subrecipient will do to carry out the federal award and federal program, and (3) provide a justification for the subaward(s), with details on pertinent matters such as special qualifications and areas of expertise. Pertinent information on subawards should appear not only in the Program Narrative, but also in the Budget Detail Worksheet and budget narrative.

2. Information on proposed procurement contracts (with specific justification for proposed noncompetitive contracts over $150,000)

Unlike a recipient contemplating a subaward, a recipient of an OJP award generally does not need specific prior federal authorization to enter into an agreement that—for purposes of federal grants administrative requirements—is considered a procurement contract, provided that (1) the recipient uses its own documented procurement procedures and (2) those procedures conform to applicable federal law, including the Procurement Standards of the (DOJ) Part 200 Uniform Requirements

(as set out at 2 C.F.R. 200.317 - 200.326). The Budget Detail Worksheet and budget narrative should identify proposed procurement contracts. (As discussed above, subawards must be identified and described separately from procurement contracts.)

The Procurement Standards in the Part 200 Uniform Requirements, however, reflect a general expectation that agreements that (for purposes of federal grants administrative requirements) constitute procurement “contracts” under awards will be entered into on the basis of full and open competition. If a proposed procurement contract would exceed the simplified acquisition threshold—currently, $150,000—a recipient of an OJP award may not proceed without competition, unless and until the recipient receives specific advance authorization from OJP to use a noncompetitive approach for the procurement.

An applicant that (at the time of its application) intends—without competition—to enter into a procurement contract that would exceed $150,000 should include a detailed justification that explains to OJP why, in the particular circumstances, it is appropriate to proceed without competition. Various considerations that may be pertinent to the justification are outlined in the DOJ Grants Financial Guide.

d. Pre-Agreement Costs

For information on pre-agreement costs, see Section B. Federal Award Information.

5. Indirect Cost Rate Agreement (if applicable)

Indirect costs may be charged to an award only if:

- (a) The recipient has a current (that is, unexpired), federally approved indirect cost rate; or
- (b) The recipient is eligible to use, and elects to use, the de minimis indirect cost rate described in the Part 200 Uniform Requirements, as set out at 2 C.F.R. 200.414(f).

An applicant with a current (that is, unexpired) federally approved indirect cost rate is to attach a copy of the indirect cost rate agreement to the application. An applicant that does not have a current federally approved rate may request one through its cognizant federal agency, which will review all documentation and approve a rate for the applicant entity, or, if the applicant’s accounting system permits, applicants may propose to allocate costs in the direct cost categories.

For assistance with identifying the appropriate cognizant federal agency for indirect costs, contact the OCFO Customer Service Center at 800–458–0786 or at ask.ocfo@usdoj.gov. If DOJ is the cognizant federal agency, applicants may obtain information needed to submit an indirect cost rate proposal at www.ojp.gov/funding/Apply/Resources/IndirectCosts.pdf.

Certain OJP recipients have the option of electing to use the de minimis indirect cost rate. An applicant that is eligible to use the de minimis rate and that wishes to use the de minimis rate should attach written documentation to the application that advises OJP of both (1) the applicant’s eligibility to use the de minimis rate and (2) its election to do so. If an eligible applicant elects the de minimis rate, costs must be consistently charged as either indirect or direct costs, but may not be double charged or inconsistently charged as both. The de minimis rate may no longer be used once an approved federally negotiated indirect cost rate is in place. (No entity that ever has had a federally approved negotiated indirect cost rate is eligible to use the de minimis rate.)

6. Financial Management and System of Internal Controls Questionnaire (including applicant disclosure of high-risk status)

Every applicant (other than an individual applying in his/her personal capacity) must download, complete, and submit the OJP Financial Management and System of Internal Controls Questionnaire as part of its application.

Among other things, the form requires each applicant to disclose whether it currently is designated “high-risk” by a federal grant-making agency outside of DOJ. For purposes of this disclosure, high risk includes any status under which a federal awarding agency provides additional oversight due to the applicant’s past performance, or other programmatic or financial concerns with the applicant. If an applicant is designated high risk by another federal awarding agency, the applicant must provide the following information:

- The federal awarding agency that currently designates the applicant high risk.
- The date the applicant was designated high risk.
- The high-risk point of contact at that federal awarding agency (name, phone number, and email address).
- The reasons for the high-risk status, as set out by the federal awarding agency.

OJP seeks this information to help ensure appropriate federal oversight of OJP awards. An applicant that is considered “high risk” by another federal awarding agency is not automatically disqualified from receiving an OJP award. OJP may, however, consider the information in award decisions, and may impose additional OJP oversight of any award under this solicitation (including through the conditions that accompany the award document).

7. Disclosure of Lobbying Activities

An applicant that expends any funds for lobbying activities is to provide all of the information requested on the form Disclosure of Lobbying Activities (SF-LLL).

8. Additional Attachments

Applicants should submit the following information as attachments to their applications.

a. Applicant disclosure of pending applications

Each applicant must disclose whether it has (or is proposed as a subrecipient under) any pending applications for federally funded grants or cooperative agreements that (1) include requests for funding to support the same project being proposed in the application under this solicitation and (2) would cover any identical cost items outlined in the budget submitted to OJP as part of the application under this solicitation. The applicant is to disclose applications made directly to federal awarding agencies, and also applications for subawards of federal funds (e.g., applications to state agencies that will subaward (“subgrant”) federal funds).

OJP seeks this information to help avoid any inappropriate duplication of funding. Leveraging multiple funding sources in a complementary manner to implement comprehensive programs or projects is encouraged and is not seen as inappropriate duplication.

Each applicant that has one or more pending applications as described above must provide the following information about pending applications submitted within the last 12 months:

- The federal or state funding agency.
- The solicitation name/project name.
- The point of contact information at the applicable federal or state funding agency.

Federal or State Funding Agency	Solicitation Name/Project Name	Name/Phone/E-mail for Point of Contact at Federal or State Funding Agency
DOJ/Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS)	COPS Hiring Program	Jane Doe, 202/000-0000; jane.doe@usdoj.gov
Health and Human Services/ Substance Abuse & Mental Health Services Administration	Drug-Free Communities Mentoring Program/North County Youth Mentoring Program	John Doe, 202/000-0000; john.doe@hhs.gov

Each applicant should include the table as a separate attachment to its application. The file should be named "Disclosure of Pending Applications." The applicant legal name on the application must match the entity named on the Disclosure of Pending Applications statement.

Any applicant that does not have any pending applications as described above must submit, as a separate attachment, a statement to this effect: "[Applicant Name on SF-424] does not have (and is not proposed as a subrecipient under) any pending applications submitted within the last 12 months for federally funded grants or cooperative agreements (or for subawards under federal grants or cooperative agreements) that request funding to support the same project being proposed in this application to OJP and that would cover all identical cost items outlined in the budget submitted as part of this application."

b. Research and Evaluation Independence and Integrity

If an application involves research (including research and development) and/or evaluation, the applicant must demonstrate research/evaluation independence and integrity, including appropriate safeguards, before it may receive award funds. The applicant must demonstrate independence and integrity regarding both this proposed research and/or evaluation, and any current or prior related projects.

Each application should include an attachment that addresses both i. and ii. below.

- i. For purposes of this solicitation, each applicant must document research and evaluation independence and integrity by including one of the following two items:
  - a. A specific assurance that the applicant has reviewed its application to identify any actual or potential apparent conflicts of interest (including through review of pertinent information on the principal investigator, any co-principal investigators, and any subrecipients), and that the applicant has identified no such conflicts of interest—whether personal or financial or organizational (including on the part of the applicant entity or on the part of staff, investigators, or subrecipients)—that could affect the independence or integrity of the research, including the design, conduct, and reporting of the research.

OR

- b. A specific description of actual or potential apparent conflicts of interest that the applicant has identified—including through review of pertinent information on the principal investigator, any coprincipal investigators, and any subrecipients—that could affect the independence or integrity of the research, including the design, conduct, or reporting of the research. These conflicts may be personal (e.g., on the part of investigators or other staff), financial, or organizational (related to the applicant or any subrecipient entity). Some examples of potential investigator (or other personal) conflict situations are those in which an investigator would be in a position to evaluate a spouse's work product (actual conflict), or an investigator would be in a position to evaluate the work of a former or current colleague (potential apparent conflict). With regard to potential organizational conflicts of interest, as one example, generally an organization would not be given an award to evaluate a project, if that organization had itself provided substantial prior technical assistance to that specific project or a location implementing the project (whether funded by OJP or other sources), because the organization in such an instance might appear to be evaluating the effectiveness of its own prior work. The key is whether a reasonable person understanding all of the facts would be able to have confidence that the results of any research or evaluation project are objective and reliable. Any outside personal or financial interest that casts doubt on that objectivity and reliability of an evaluation or research product is a problem and must be disclosed.
- ii. In addition, for purposes of this solicitation, each applicant is to address possible mitigation of research integrity concerns by including, at a minimum, one of the following two items:

- a. If an applicant reasonably believes that no actual or potential apparent conflicts of interest (personal, financial, or organizational) exist, then the applicant should provide a brief narrative explanation of how and why it reached that conclusion. The applicant also is to include an explanation of the specific processes and procedures that the applicant has in place, or will put in place, to identify and prevent (or, at the very least, mitigate) any such conflicts of interest pertinent to the funded project during the period of performance. Documentation that may be helpful in this regard may include organizational codes of ethics/conduct and policies regarding organizational, personal, and financial conflicts of interest. There is no guarantee that the plan, if any, will be accepted as proposed.

OR

- b. If the applicant has identified actual or potential apparent conflicts of interest (personal, financial, or organizational) that could affect the independence and integrity of the research, including the design, conduct, or reporting of the research, the applicant is to provide a specific and robust mitigation plan to address each of those conflicts. At a minimum, the applicant is expected to explain the specific processes and procedures that the applicant has in place, or will put in place, to identify and eliminate (or, at the very least, mitigate) any such conflicts of interest pertinent to the funded project during the period of performance. Documentation that may be helpful in this regard may include organizational codes of ethics/conduct and policies regarding organizational, personal, and financial conflicts of interest. There is no guarantee that the plan, if any, will be accepted as proposed.

OJP will assess research and evaluation independence and integrity based on considerations such as the adequacy of the applicant's efforts to identify factors that could affect the objectivity or integrity of the proposed staff and/or the applicant entity (and any subrecipients) in carrying out the research, development, or evaluation activity; and the adequacy of the applicant's existing or proposed remedies to control any such factors.

- c. Demonstration of compliance with additional requirements of the JJDP Act. Refer to items 1 to 28 listed in Appendix I. Important: States must provide reasonable evidence of compliance with each of the 28 requirements in their applications. States must submit Appendix I as an attachment to their applications listing page numbers to indicate where they provided evidence of compliance with each requirement. If states fail to comply with the 28 requirements of the JJDP Act, OJJDP may deem the state ineligible for the award or may place special conditions on the award that would withhold the formula grant award.
- d. Agency contact information. As a separate attachment, submit the names and contact information for key staff in the designated agency that receives the grant. Refer to Appendix J for the staff and contact information to include.

How To Apply

An applicant must submit its application through the Grants Management System \(GMS\), which provides support for the application, award, and management of awards at OJP. Each applicant entity must register in GMS for each specific funding opportunity and should register immediately to meet the GMS registration deadline for this funding opportunity, especially if this is the first time the applicant is using the system. Find complete instructions on how to register and submit an application in GMS at www.ojp.gov/gmscbt/. An applicant that experiences technical difficulties during this process should email GMS.HelpDesk@usdoj.gov or call 888-549-9901 (option 3), 24 hours every day, including federal holidays. OJP recommends that each applicant register immediately to prevent delays in submitting an application package by the deadline.

Note on File Types: GMS does not accept executable file types as application attachments. These disallowed file types include, but are not limited to, the following extensions: “.com,” “.bat,” “.exe,” “.vbs,” “.cfg,” “.dat,” “.db,” “.dbf,” “.dll,” “.ini,” “.log,” “.ora,” “.sys,” and “.zip.”

Every applicant entity must comply with all applicable System for Award Management (SAM) and unique entity identifier (currently, a Data Universal Numbering System (DUNS) number) requirements. If an applicant entity has not fully complied with applicable SAM and unique identifier requirements by the time OJP makes award decisions, OJP may determine that the applicant is not qualified to receive an award and may use that determination as a basis for making the award to a different applicant.

All applicants should complete the following steps:

- 1. Acquire a unique entity identifier (currently, a DUNS number). In general, the Office of Management and Budget requires every applicant for a federal award (other than an individual) to include a "unique entity identifier" in each application, including an application for a supplemental award. Currently, a DUNS number is the required unique entity identifier.

A DUNS number is a unique nine-digit identification number provided by the commercial company Dun and Bradstreet. This unique entity identifier is used for tracking purposes, and to validate address and point of contact information for applicants, recipients, and subrecipients. It will be used throughout the life cycle of an OJP award. Obtaining a DUNS number is a free, one-time activity. Call Dun and Bradstreet at 866-705-5711 to obtain a DUNS number or apply online at www.dnb.com. A DUNS number is usually received within 1–2 business days.

- 2. Register with SAM. SAM is the repository for certain standard information about federal financial assistance applicants, recipients, and subrecipients. All applicants for OJP awards (other than individuals) must maintain current registrations in the SAM database. Each applicant must update or renew its SAM registration at least annually to maintain an active status. SAM registration and renewal can take as long as 10 business days to complete.

Information about SAM registration procedures can be accessed at www.sam.gov.

3. Acquire a GMS username and password. New users must create a GMS profile by selecting the “First Time User” link under the sign-in box of the GMS home page. For more information on how to register in GMS, go to www.ojp.gov/gmscbt.
4. Verify the SAM (formerly CCR) registration in GMS. OJP requires each applicant to verify its SAM registration in GMS. Once logged into GMS, click the “CCR Claim” link on the left side of the default screen. Click the submit button to verify the SAM (formerly CCR) registration.
5. Search for the funding opportunity on GMS. After logging into GMS or completing the GMS profile for username and password, go to the “Funding Opportunities” link on the left side of the page. Select OJJDP and OJJDP FY 2017 Title II Formula Grants Program.
6. Register by selecting the “Apply Online” button associated with the funding opportunity title. The search results from step 5 will display the “funding opportunity” (solicitation) title along with the registration and application deadlines for this solicitation. Select the “Apply Online” button in the “Action” column to register for this solicitation and create an application in the system.
7. Follow the directions in GMS to submit an application consistent with this solicitation. Once the application is submitted, GMS will display a confirmation screen stating the submission was successful. Important: In some instances, applicants must wait for GMS approval before submitting an application. OJP urges each applicant to submit its application at least 72 hours prior to the application due date.

Note: Application Versions

If an applicant submits multiple versions of the same application, OJP will review only the most recent system-validated version submitted.

Experiencing Unforeseen GMS Technical Issues

An applicant that experiences unforeseen GMS technical issues beyond its control that prevent it from submitting its application by the deadline must contact the GMS Help Desk or the SAM Help Desk (Federal Service Desk) to report the technical issue and receive a tracking number. The applicant must email Kathryn.Manning@usdoj.gov or Carol.Neylan@usdoj.gov within 24 hours after the application deadline to request approval to submit its application after the deadline. The applicant’s email must describe the technical difficulties and must include a timeline of the applicant’s submission efforts, the complete grant application, the applicant’s DUNS number, and any GMS Help Desk or SAM tracking number(s).

Note: OJP does not automatically approve requests to submit a late application. After OJP reviews the applicant’s request, and contacts the GMS Help Desk to verify the reported technical issues, OJP will inform the applicant whether the request to submit a late application has been approved or denied. If OJP determines that the untimely application submission was due to the applicant’s failure to follow all required procedures, OJP will deny the applicant’s request to submit its application.

The following conditions generally are insufficient to justify late submissions:

- Failure to register in SAM or GMS in sufficient time. (SAM registration and renewal can take as long as 10 business days to complete.)
- Failure to follow GMS instructions on how to register and apply as posted on the GMS website.
- Failure to follow each instruction in the OJP solicitation.
- Technical issues with the applicant's computer or information technology environment, such as issues with firewalls.

E. Application Review Information

Review Process

OJP is committed to ensuring a fair and open process for making awards. OJJDP reviews the application to make sure that the information presented is reasonable, understandable, measurable, and achievable, as well as consistent with the solicitation. OJJDP will also review applications to ensure that statutory requirements have been met.

Pursuant to the Part 200 Uniform Requirements, before awards are made, OJP also reviews information related to the degree of risk posed by applicants. Among other things, to help assess whether an applicant that has one or more prior federal awards has a satisfactory record with respect to performance, integrity, and business ethics, OJP checks whether the applicant is listed in SAM as excluded from receiving a federal award. If OJP anticipates that an award will exceed $150,000 in federal funds, OJP also must review and consider any information about the applicant that appears in the nonpublic segment of the integrity and performance system accessible through SAM (currently, the Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System; "FAPPIIS").

Important note on FAPPIIS: An applicant, at its option, may review and comment on any information about itself that currently appears in FAPPIIS and was entered by a federal awarding agency. OJP will consider any such comments by the applicant, in addition to the other information in FAPPIIS, in its assessment of the risk posed by applicants.

The evaluation of risks goes beyond information in SAM, however. OJP itself has in place a framework for evaluating risks posed by applicants. OJP takes into account information pertinent to matters such as—

1. Applicant financial stability and fiscal integrity.
2. Quality of the management systems of the applicant, and the applicant's ability to meet prescribed management standards, including those outlined in the DOJ Grants Financial Guide.
3. Applicant's history of performance under OJP and other DOJ awards (including compliance with reporting requirements and award conditions), as well as awards from other federal agencies.
4. Reports and findings from audits of the applicant, including audits under the Part 200 Uniform Requirements.
5. Applicant's ability to comply with statutory and regulatory requirements, and to effectively implement other award requirements.

Absent explicit statutory authorization or written delegation of authority to the contrary, the Assistant Attorney General will make all final award decisions.

F. Federal Award Administration Information

Federal Award Notices

Award notifications will be made by September 30, 2017. OJP sends award notification by email through GMS to the individuals listed in the application as the point of contact and the authorizing official. The email notification includes detailed instructions on how to access and view the award documents, and steps to take in GMS to start the award acceptance process. GMS automatically issues the notifications at 9 p.m. ET on the award date.

For each successful applicant, an individual with the necessary authority to bind the applicant will be required to log in; execute a set of legal certifications and a set of legal assurances; designate a financial point of contact; thoroughly review the award, including all award conditions; and sign and accept the award. The award acceptance process requires physical signature of the award document by the authorized representative and the scanning of the fully executed award document to OJP.

Administrative, National Policy, and Other Legal Requirements

If selected for funding, in addition to implementing the funded project consistent with the OJP-approved application, the recipient must comply with all award conditions, as well as all applicable requirements of federal statutes, regulations, and executive orders (including applicable requirements referred to in the assurances and certifications executed at the time of award acceptance). OJP strongly encourages prospective applicants to review information on post-award legal requirements and common OJP award conditions prior to submitting an application.

Applicants should consult the “Overview of Legal Requirements Generally Applicable to OJP Grants and Cooperative Agreements,” available in the OJP Funding Resource Center. In addition, applicants should examine the following two legal documents, as each successful applicant must execute both documents before it may receive any award funds.

- Certifications Regarding Lobbying; Debarment, Suspension and Other Responsibility Matters; and Drug-Free Workplace Requirements
- Standard Assurances

Applicants may view these documents in the Apply section of the OJP Funding Resource Center.

The webpages accessible through the “Overview of Legal Requirements Generally Applicable to OJP Grants and Cooperative Agreements” are intended to give applicants for OJP awards a general overview of important statutes, regulations, and award conditions that apply to many (or in some cases, all) OJP grants and cooperative agreements awarded in FY 2017. Individual OJP awards typically also will include additional award conditions. Those additional conditions may relate to the particular statute, program, or solicitation under which the award is made; to the substance of the funded application; to the recipient's performance under other federal awards; to the recipient's legal status (e.g., as a for-profit entity); or to other pertinent considerations.

General Information About Post-Federal Award Reporting Requirements

In addition to the deliverables described in Section A. Program Description, any recipient of an award under this solicitation will be required to submit the following reports and data.

Required reports. Recipients typically must submit quarterly financial reports, annual progress reports, final financial and progress reports, and, if applicable, an annual audit report in accordance with the Part 200 Uniform Requirements or specific award conditions. Future awards and fund drawdowns may be withheld if reports are delinquent. (In appropriate cases, OJP may require additional reports.)

Awards that exceed $500,000 will include an additional condition that, under specific circumstances, will require the recipient to report (to FAPIIS) information on civil, criminal, and administrative proceedings connected with (or connected to the performance of) either the OJP award or any other grant, cooperative agreement, or procurement contract from the federal government. Additional information on this reporting requirement appears in the text of the award condition posted on the OJP web site at <http://ojp.gov/funding/FAPIIS.htm>

Data on performance measures. In addition to required reports, an award recipient also must provide data that measure the results of the work done under the award. To demonstrate program progress and success, as well as to assist DOJ with fulfilling its responsibilities under the Government Performance and Results Act of 1993 (GPRA), Public Law 103–62, and the GPRA Modernization Act of 2010, Public Law 111–352, OJP will require any recipient, post award, to provide the data listed as “Data Recipient Provides” in the performance measures table in Section D. Application and Submission Information under "Program Narrative," so that OJP can calculate values for this solicitation's performance measures.

G. Federal Awarding Agency Contact(s)

For OJP contact(s), see the title page.

For contact information for GMS, see the title page.

H. Other Information

Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552 and 5 U.S.C. 552a)

All applications submitted to OJP (including all attachments to applications) are subject to the federal Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and to the Privacy Act. By law, DOJ may withhold information that is responsive to a request pursuant to FOIA if DOJ determines that the responsive information either is protected under the Privacy Act or falls within the scope of one of nine statutory exemptions under FOIA. DOJ cannot agree in advance of a request pursuant to FOIA not to release some or all portions of an application.

In its review of records that are responsive to a FOIA request, OJP will withhold information in those records that plainly falls within the scope of the Privacy Act or one of the statutory exemptions under FOIA. (Some examples include certain types of information in budgets, and names and contact information for project staff other than certain key personnel.) In appropriate circumstances, OJP will request the views of the applicant/recipient that submitted a responsive document.

For example, if OJP receives a request pursuant to FOIA for an application submitted by a nonprofit or for-profit organization or an institution of higher education, or for an application that involves research, OJP typically will contact the applicant/recipient that submitted the application and ask it to identify—quite precisely—any particular information in the application that applicant/recipient believes falls under a FOIA exemption, the specific exemption it believes applies, and why. After considering the submission by the applicant/recipient, OJP makes an independent assessment regarding withholding information. OJP generally follows a similar process for requests pursuant to FOIA for applications that may contain law-enforcement-sensitive information.

Provide Feedback to OJP

To assist OJP in improving its application and award processes, OJP encourages applicants to provide feedback on this solicitation, the application submission process, and/or the application review process. Provide feedback to OJPSolicitationFeedback@usdoj.gov.

IMPORTANT: This email is for feedback and suggestions only. OJP does not reply from this mailbox to messages it receives in this mailbox. Any prospective applicant that has specific questions on any program or technical aspect of the solicitation must use the appropriate telephone number or email listed on the front of this solicitation document to obtain information. These contacts are provided to help ensure that prospective applicants can directly reach an individual who can address specific questions in a timely manner.

If you are interested in being a reviewer for other OJP grant applications, email your résumé to ojppeerreview@lmsolas.com. (Do not send your résumé to the OJP Solicitation Feedback email account.) Note: Neither you nor anyone else from your organization or entity can be a peer reviewer in a competition in which you or your organization/entity has submitted an application.

Appendix B: Formula Grants Program Areas—Summary Descriptions

The 3-year plan and annual updates must show that not less than 75 percent of the Formula Grants Program funds, excluding funds made available to the state advisory group under the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5632(d), shall be used to support the areas listed below. The descriptions that follow are summaries of the full statutory language from 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(9), which is contained in Appendix I. Each Program Area Summary Description references the specific section within 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(9), as noted. For example, 42 U.S.C. 5633 (a)(9)(Q) is listed as 9(Q).

1. Aftercare/Reentry. Community-based programs that prepare targeted youth to successfully return to their homes and communities after confinement in a training school, youth correctional facility, or other secure institution. These programs focus on preparing youth for release and providing a continuum of followup post-placement services to promote successful reintegration into the community. 9(Q)
2. After-School Programs. Programs that provide at-risk youth and youth in the juvenile justice systems with a range of age-appropriate activities, including tutoring, mentoring, and other educational and enrichment activities. 9(P)
3. Alternatives to Detention and Placement. These are community- and home-based alternatives to incarceration and institutionalization, including for youth who need temporary placement such as crisis intervention, shelter, and aftercare, and for youth who need residential placement such as a continuum of foster care or group home alternatives that provide access to a comprehensive array of services. 9(A)
4. Child Abuse and Neglect Programs. Programs that provide treatment to youth who have committed offenses who are victims of child abuse or neglect and to their families to reduce the likelihood that such youth will commit subsequent violations of law. 9(D)
5. Community-Based Programs and Services. These programs and services are those that work with—
  - a. Parents and other family members to strengthen families and to help keep youth in the home;
  - b. Youth and their families during and after confinement to ensure the youth's safe return to the home and to strengthen the families; and
  - c. Parents with limited English-speaking ability. 9(B), (M), and (N).
6. Delinquency Prevention. Comprehensive juvenile justice and delinquency prevention programs that meet the needs of youth through collaboration of the many local systems before which a youth may appear, including schools, courts, law enforcement agencies, child protection agencies, mental health agencies, welfare services, health care agencies, and private nonprofit agencies offering youth services. 9(C)
7. Gangs. Programs, research, or other initiatives primarily to address issues related to youth gang activity. This program area includes prevention and intervention efforts directed at reducing gang-related activities. 9(I)

8. Graduated and Appropriate Sanctions.<sup>10</sup> Programs to encourage courts to develop and implement a continuum of postadjudication restraints that bridge the gap between traditional probation and confinement in a correctional setting. Services include expanded use of probation, mediation, restitution, community service, treatment, home detention, intensive supervision, electronic monitoring, translation services and similar programs; and secure, community-based treatment facilities linked to other support services, such as health, mental health, education (remedial and special), job training, and recreation. Programs to assist in the design and use of evidence-based risk assessment instruments to aid in application of appropriate sanctions. 9(L)
9. Hate Crimes. Programs to prevent and reduce hate crimes committed by youth. 9(O)
10. Job Training. Projects to enhance the employability of youth or prepare them for future employment. Such programs may include job readiness training, apprenticeships, and job referrals. 9(G)
11. Learning and Other Disabilities. Programs concerning youth delinquency and disability, including on-the-job training to help community services, law enforcement, and juvenile justice personnel recognize and provide for juveniles with learning and other disabilities. 9(H)
12. Mental Health Services. Programs providing mental health services for youth in custody in need of such services, including but not limited to assessment, development of individualized treatment plans, and discharge plans. 9(S)
13. Mentoring, Counseling, and Training Programs. Programs to develop and sustain a one-to-one supportive relationship between a responsible adult age 18 or older (a mentor) and an at-risk youth, a youth who has offended, or a youth who has contact with a parent or legal guardian who is or was incarcerated and contact is on a regular basis (a mentee). These programs may support academic tutoring, vocational and technical training, and drug and violence prevention counseling. 9(G)
14. Positive Youth Development. Programs that assist delinquent and at-risk youth in obtaining a sense of safety and structure, belonging and membership, self-worth and social contribution, independence and control over one's life, and closeness in interpersonal relationships. 9(K) examining problems affecting decisions from arrest to disposition and detention to corrections).

28. Planning and Administration. Activities related to state plan development, other pre-award activities, and administration of the Formula Grants Program, including evaluation, monitoring, and staffing, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 5632(c).

32. State Advisory Group Allocation. Activities related to carrying out the state advisory group's responsibilities under the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(3).

Appendix C: Pass-Through Waiver Requirements

1. The JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(5) requires states to pass through 66 and 2/3 percent of funds that they receive under the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5632 unless waived, at the discretion of the Administrator.
2. The request for waiver should be attached to the state's Title II application in the form of a letter addressed to the OJJDP Administrator, who will review requests for exceptions to this waiver; however, the state must meet the following criteria prior to review or approval:
  - a. Demonstration, by comparing state and local expenditures for the preceding fiscal year, of how the state bears the primary financial burden for youth justice services provided in each of the authorized purpose areas.
  - b. Demonstration of consultation with units of local government in the state, either directly or through organizations representing such units, regarding the proposed waiver.
  - c. Demonstration of consultation with other state agencies that bear the primary financial burden for juvenile justice.
  - d. The approval of the state advisory group.
6. If a state is requesting to renew a waiver that was previously approved, the state must certify that no changes have occurred since the original information was provided in relation to its financial burden for the administration of the juvenile justice system.
7. For further information or clarification, contact your OJJDP Program Manager.

Appendix E: Rural Removal Exception Certification Form

RURAL REMOVAL EXCEPTION CERTIFICATION

Attached is a list of all facilities within the State/Territory of _____ that OJJDP has previously approved for use of the Rural Removal Exception.

The State/Territory of _____ certifies that all facilities OJJDP has approved continue to meet the statutory conditions of the JJDP Act, including:

- _____ The state compliance monitor has determined that the facility(s) meet or exceed sight and sound separation standards detailed in 28 CFR 31.303(d)(1)(i);
- _____ The state has a policy in effect that requires individuals who work with both youth and adult inmates in collocated facilities to be trained and certified to work with youth;
- _____ The facility(s) are located outside a metropolitan statistical area (as defined by the Office of Management and Budget) and have no existing acceptable alternative placement available;
- _____ The facility(s) are located where conditions of distance to be traveled or the lack of highway, road, or transportation do not allow for court appearances within 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays) so that a brief (not to exceed 48 hours) delay is excusable; or
- _____ The facility(s) are located where conditions of safety exist (such as severely adverse, life-threatening weather conditions that do not allow for reasonably safe travel), in which case the time for an appearance may be delayed until 24 hours after the time that such conditions allow for reasonably safe travel.

* Applicants are to disaggregate Planning and Administrative (P&A) program area costs by the subcategories listed above, which are to primarily cover:

1. The salaries of staff, such as a juvenile justice specialist, compliance monitor, and administrative assistant.
2. Travel costs of staff for the following:
  - To undertake compliance monitoring.
  - To attend national and regional OJJDP-sponsored conferences and workshops, as appropriate.
  - To attend local conferences and workshops, as appropriate.
  - To monitor contracts and subgrants with providers throughout the state.

Important note: If a state is out of compliance with one or more of the core requirements of the JJDP Act, OJJDP will reduce its award by 20 percent for each requirement with which the state fails to comply. To receive any allocation, the state must use 50 percent of the amount received after the reduction for noncompliance to achieve compliance.<sup>13</sup>

Planning and Administration may be computed on the amount of the award after the reduction for noncompliance. (Note, however, that under the JJDP Act, a state is permitted to budget for planning and administration as much as 10 percent of its total allocation, i.e., the allocation prior to any reduction for noncompliance). After any amount for Planning and Administration is deducted, the state may use the remaining funds for other programming.

Sample Calculations of the Pass-Through Requirement, SAG Funds, and Planning and Administrative (P&A) Costs

The following is an example only; the dollar amounts and percentages may vary depending on whether the state has a waiver of the 66 and 2/3 percent pass-through requirement and whether the state expends the full amounts allowed for SAG and P&A.

To calculate the amount the state may use for P&A:

$400,000 FY 2017 award amount x 10% P&A = $40,000 P&A federal share (must be matched)

To calculate the amount the state must pass through to units of local government or combinations thereof:

$400,000 FY 2017 award amount - $20,000 SAG allocation = $380,000

$380,000 x .6666 = $253,308 must be passed through.

NOTE: To demonstrate that the state meets the pass-through requirement, put a “P” next to each line item that is being passed through, as in the sample budget above. If a line item includes both funds that are being passed through and funds that are not being passed through, clearly identify the amount for each. For example, if the Disproportionate Minority Contact (DMC) line item includes funds for staff salary as well as program funds, list one DMC line item with the staff salary amount and a second DMC line item with the amount of funds being passed through for programming, with a “P” next to the amount.

<sup>13</sup> Alternatively, per 42 U.S.C. 5633(c)(2)(B), the state need not expend 50% of the remaining funds to come into compliance with any of the four requirements if the OJJDP Administrator determines that the state (i) has achieved substantial compliance with such applicable requirements with respect to which the state was not in compliance and (ii) has made, through appropriate executive or legislative action, an unequivocal commitment to achieving full compliance with such applicable requirements within a reasonable time.

Appendix G: Compliance and DMC Plans

Important notes: States must submit their compliance and DMC plans, compliance data and Relative Rate Index data, and supporting documentation for the federal fiscal year 2016 [October 1, 2015, to September 30, 2016], electronically to OJJDP's online compliance reporting tool, separately from this application and no later than February 28, 2017.<sup>14</sup> This appendix and Appendix H provide details regarding what states should include in the compliance and DMC plan submissions.

- A. Plan for compliance with the first three core requirements of the JJDP Act and the state's compliance monitoring plan. Plans should be data based and program specific, including the necessary "who, what, where, how, and when."

Elements of the comprehensive 3-Year Plan:

- (1) Plan for deinstitutionalization of status offenders (DSO). Pursuant to the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633, the state must develop a plan that provides that juveniles who commit status offenses and juveniles who are not charged with any offense will not be placed in secure detention or secure correctional facilities except as allowed under the exceptions set forth in the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633 (a)(11)(A).

OJJDP recommends that the plan include a trend analysis of the state's DSO rates in preceding years (i.e., are rates increasing or decreasing and why). In addition, OJJDP recommends that the plan discuss the nature of the instances of noncompliance with DSO the state has typically experienced (e.g., status/nonoffenders in jails or lockups, youth accused of status offenses held in juvenile detention centers for more than 24 hours, incorrect or inappropriate usage of the valid court order exception). The state's plan to achieve or maintain compliance with DSO should relate directly to this analysis of violations. OJJDP recommends that the plan include:

- An overall timetable for achieving compliance.
- Strategies for achieving and maintaining compliance, including a description of any state or local laws that impact compliance and information on how the designated state agency and state advisory group (SAG) will work together to address those circumstances in which DSO violations have occurred. Any recent or pending changes that could impact the state's compliance (e.g., pending or new legislation and staffing changes). Detailed goals, objectives, and action steps to achieve full compliance, including the title of the individual responsible for each step and the date by which it will occur. Goals, objectives, and activities should be directly tied to those circumstances in which DSO violations have occurred.
- Information on the SAG's proposed involvement.

- (2) Plan for separation of juveniles from adult inmates. Pursuant to the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(12), the state must develop a plan that provides youth alleged or found to be delinquent, committed a status offense, and youth not committing any offenses who are alleged to be dependent, neglected, or abused shall not be detained or confined in any institution in which they have contact with an adult inmate; that is, an individual who has reached the age of full criminal responsibility under applicable state law and has been arrested and is in custody for or awaiting trial on a criminal charge, or is convicted of a criminal offense.

OJJDP recommends that the plan include trend analysis of the state's separation compliance rates in preceding years (i.e., are rates increasing or decreasing and why). In addition, OJJDP recommends that the plan discuss the nature of separation violations the state has typically experienced (e.g., problems with adult trustees, physical plant issues in older facilities). The state's plan to achieve or maintain compliance with separation should relate directly to this analysis of violations. OJJDP recommends that the plan include:

- A strategy for achieving and maintaining compliance, including a description of any state or local laws that impact compliance.
- Information on how the designated state agency and the SAG will work together to address circumstances in which separation violations have tended to occur, if relevant.
- Any changes that could impact the state's compliance (e.g., pending or new legislation, staffing changes).
- Detailed goals, objectives, and action steps to achieve full compliance, including the individual responsible for each step and the date by which it will occur. Goals, objectives, and activities must be directly tied to those circumstances in which separation violations have occurred.
- An overall timetable for achieving compliance.
- Information on the SAG's proposed involvement.

Any state in which individuals work with both youth and adult inmates must have in effect a policy requiring that such individuals be trained and certified to work with youth.

(3) Plan for removal of youth from adult jails and lockups. Pursuant to the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(13), the state must develop a plan that provides that (with limited exceptions) no juvenile shall be detained or confined in any adult jail or lockup.

OJJDP recommends that this plan include a trend analysis of the state's jail removal compliance rates in preceding years (i.e., are rates increasing or decreasing and why). In addition, OJJDP recommends that the plan discuss the nature of jail removal violations the state has typically experienced (e.g., youth who commit status offenses detained or confined for any length of time in adult facilities, accused juvenile delinquents held in excess of the 6-hour rule, use of the rural exception found at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(13)(B)). The state's plan to achieve or maintain compliance with jail removal should relate directly to this analysis of violations. Areas to address include:

- Provide a strategy to achieve and maintain compliance, including a description of any state or local laws that impact compliance.

- Information on how the designated state agency and SAG will work together to address those circumstances in which jail removal violations have tended to occur, if relevant.
- Any changes that could impact the state's compliance (e.g., pending or new legislation, staffing changes).
- Detailed goals, objectives, and action steps for achieving full compliance, including the individual responsible for each step and the date by which it will occur. Goals, objectives, and activities should be directly tied to those circumstances in which jail removal violations have occurred.
- An overall timetable for achieving compliance.
- Information on the SAG's proposed involvement.

The JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(13)(B) and OJJDP regulations provide for a rural removal exception with regard to youth accused of delinquent offenses, held in certain rural areas, and who are awaiting an initial court appearance. Under certain circumstances, such youth may be temporarily detained beyond the 6-hour time limit. It is important to note that the rural removal exception does not apply to status offenders. Youth who commit status offenses may not be detained or confined for any length of time in an adult jail or lockup. States must receive prior approval from OJJDP to use the rural exception, except in life-threatening weather conditions as described in the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(13)(B)(ii)(III).

All states that have previously received OJJDP approval to use the rural exception for any facility must complete the Rural Removal Exception Certification form (Appendix E) certifying that approved facilities continue to meet the required conditions. The juvenile justice specialist should sign this form, and the state should submit it with its grant application.

States may submit requests for newly identified facilities at any time to OJJDP's State Program Manager or to OJJDP's Core Protections Division. OJJDP must approve any use of the rural exception for each new facility prior to use, except in life-threatening weather conditions as described in the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(13)(B)(ii)(III).

B. Plan for compliance monitoring for the first three core requirements of the JJDP Act.

Pursuant to the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(14), the state must provide for an adequate system of monitoring jails, lockups, detention facilities, correctional facilities, and nonsecure facilities to ensure that the core protections are met.

States must provide a plan describing how their system for compliance monitoring meets each of the following 10 elements of an adequate compliance monitoring system:

(1) Policy and procedures. States must provide a copy of their compliance monitoring policy and procedures manual.

(2) Monitoring authority. The designated state agency that implements the JJDP Act core requirements should have the legal authority to inspect and collect data from all facilities in which youth might be detained or confined pursuant to law enforcement or juvenile court authority. As an attachment to this application, the state must provide a copy of the legislative statute or executive order that provides the designated state agency with this authority. If this information is included in the above-referenced policies and procedures manual, provide the page or appendix number.

- (3) Monitoring timeline. States must keep an annual calendar denoting when and where compliance monitoring will occur. As an attachment to this application, states must provide a copy of their monitoring timetable. If this information is included in the above-referenced policies and procedures manual, provide the page or appendix number.
- (4) Violation procedures. This section of the plan must describe the legislative and administrative procedures and sanctions that the state has established to receive, investigate, and report compliance violations. If an agency other than the designated state agency monitors, describe how that agency maintains accountability for compliance with this requirement. If this information is included in the policies and procedures manual, provide the page number where it can be found.
- (5) Barriers and strategies. Provide a written description of barriers the state faces in implementing an adequate system of compliance monitoring. This description must include strategies the state employs to overcome the barriers. If an up-to-date description of barriers and strategies is included in the policies and procedures manual, provide the page number where it can be found.
- (6) Definition of terms. States' definitions for juvenile and criminal justice terms sometimes differ from those provided in the JJDP Act. It is critical that these differences are identified and addressed in the monitoring process. Provide a discussion of how state terms differ from those provided in the JJDP Act. If this information is included in the policies and procedures manual, provide the page number where it can be found. In addition, the state must certify that where state definitions differ from federal definitions in the monitoring process, federal definitions will be used in the monitoring process.
- (7) Identification of the monitoring universe. States must identify all facilities in which violations might occur (i.e., facilities that could meet the definition of a secure detention facility [as defined in the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5603(12)]; a secure correctional facility [as defined in the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5603(13)]; a jail or lockup for adults [as defined in the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5603(22)]; any institution in which a juvenile may be detained or confined such that he has contact with an adult inmate; and nonsecure facilities). This list may include both public and privately owned or operated facilities. If a detailed description of the state's identification process is included in the policies and procedures manual, provide the page number where it can be found.
- (8) Classification of monitoring universe. States must classify all facilities in the state to determine which ones should be considered a secure detention or correctional facility, adult correctional institution, jail, lockup, or other type of secure or nonsecure facility. Moreover, classification also includes determining whether a facility is public or private, residential or nonresidential, and whether the population is youth only, adult only, or youth and adult. If a detailed description of the state's classification process is included in the policies and procedures manual, provide the page number where it can be found.

(9) Inspection of facilities. Inspection of facilities is necessary to ensure an accurate assessment of each facility’s classification and recordkeeping. States must provide a plan for annually monitoring jails, lockups, and other facilities to determine that they comply with the DSO, separation, and jail removal requirements found in the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(11), (12), and (13). If a detailed description of the state’s inspection process is included in the policies and procedures manual, provide the page number where it can be found.

(10) Data collection and verification. States must collect data from facilities and report the data to OJJDP. If the facility data are self-reported by the facility or are collected by an agency other than the state agency receiving federal grant funds, the plan must describe a statistically valid procedure to verify the reported data and describe the implementation of that verification procedure. Onsite data verification should involve the review of data that a facility self-reports, including a review of the facility’s admissions records and/or booking logs. If a detailed description of the state’s process for data collection and verification is included in the policies and procedures manual, provide the page number where it can be found.

The designated state agency implementing the Formula Grants Program is responsible for the state’s compliance monitoring effort and the validity of the annual monitoring report; that agency may contract with a public or private agency to perform the monitoring function. If selecting another agency, the state must identify in its monitoring plan which agency it has authorized and/or tasked to assist in the monitoring functions. This plan should identify the funding amount and the name, address, and telephone number of the contractor. In addition, the plan should include the procedures and activities the state uses to monitor the contractual arrangement.

C. Plan for compliance with the disproportionate minority contact (DMC) core requirement. Pursuant to the JJDP Act at 42 U.S.C. 5633(a)(22), states and territories must “address youth delinquency prevention efforts and system improvement efforts designed to reduce, without establishing or requiring numerical standards or quotas, the disproportionate number of juvenile members of minority groups who come into contact with the juvenile justice system.” DMC exists if the rate of contact with the juvenile justice system of a specific minority group is significantly different than the rate of contact for non-Hispanic whites or other minority groups.

States achieve compliance with this core requirement when they meet the requirements set forth in Formula Grants Consolidated Regulation 28 CFR Part 31.303(j)-(k). These include addressing DMC continually through identification (identifying the extent to which DMC exists), assessment (examining and determining the factors that contribute to DMC, if it exists), intervention (developing and implementing strategies to reduce DMC), evaluation (evaluating the efficacy of implemented strategies), and monitoring (tracking changes in DMC trends over time).

All states except Puerto Rico, American Samoa, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and the U.S. Virgin Islands shall submit DMC identification spreadsheets as part of the DMC compliance plan in their 3-Year Plans. All participating states and U.S. territories shall submit any data they have collected and analyzed by race and ethnicity. When a state determines that DMC exists, it shall provide in its 3-Year Plan and the subsequent updates, a plan that complies with the implementation guidelines below. Responses to the 2016 DMC Plan must address the five phases of the DMC Reduction Cycle.

Phase I: Identification. The purpose of the identification phase of a state's DMC effort is to determine whether disproportionality exists and the extent to which it exists. This requires the state to make comparisons between races within targeted jurisdictions. By collecting and examining data at the major contact/decision points in the juvenile justice system, states and territories can determine whether overrepresentation exists, in which jurisdictions it may exist, and the degree to which it exists at any contact/decision point within the juvenile justice system (See Disproportionate Minority Contact Technical Assistance Manual, 4th Edition [2009], Chapter 1, for detailed descriptions of the juvenile justice system contact points.)

Additionally, based on experience with the Relative Rate Index (RRI) process over several years, OJJDP has created a series of steps in the analysis of index values to drive decisionmaking within a state and community. The objective is for the state and a community to identify a small set (at least five) of contact point/racial group combinations that will be the focus of later assessment, intervention, and evaluation work. In other words, select points of focus for the ongoing DMC activity. The five-step process involves:

(1) Updated DMC identification spreadsheets. OJJDP requires states to collect, analyze, and enter the data statewide and for at least three local jurisdictions, approved by OJJDP, into the DMC Web-Based Data Entry System every 3 years; states also may do so annually or biannually. The data should be no older than FY 2013. Once the state has entered the data, export the RRI spreadsheets to OJJDP's Compliance Tool and label as "Attachment #2." Identify the jurisdiction when exporting to the online tool (example: Attachment #2: Smith County/Township/Parish). Note: States may submit data for fewer than three local jurisdictions if the statewide minority population does not meet the 1-percent threshold to be analyzed separately and/or if the state has requested and received a waiver to target fewer than three jurisdictions. If states enter more than three jurisdictions into the DMC Web-Based Data Entry System and attach them in OJJDP's Compliance Tool, they must explain why the additional jurisdictions were entered if they are not local targeted reduction sites where interventions will be implemented.

Note: This requirement is not applicable for American Samoa, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands as the DMC Web-Based Data Entry System does not currently reflect their specific races and ethnicities. However, the U.S. territories must submit any data they have collected and analyzed for youth who have come into contact with the juvenile justice systems.

(2) DMC data discussion. Respond to the following:

Note: States must complete the RRI Analysis Tracking Sheet as a component of their data discussion statewide and for at least three local jurisdictions unless OJJDP has granted a waiver. States must include the corresponding RRI values (see a sample sheet in Appendix H).

- (a) When quantifiable documentation is unavailable or incomplete to determine whether DMC exists or has changed, the state must provide a time-limited plan, not to exceed 6 months, for developing and implementing a system to routinely collect the data to track progress in DMC reduction and demonstrate consistent improvement in this area. Again, the data should be no older than FY 2013 for those states that collect data every 3 years. States that anticipate that the time-limited plan will exceed 6 months must provide additional information as to how they will collect and analyze data prior to their submission of their next 3-Year Plan.

The time-limited plan must include, if applicable, descriptions of the following:

- Current and future barriers to data collection and tracking.
  - The agencies, organizations, or individual(s) that will collect and analyze the data.
  - The anticipated outcomes for data collection and analysis.
- (b) Discuss the RRIs obtained, compare the updated data with the data in the FY 2015–2017 3-Year Comprehensive Plan, and illustrate how the data inform/guide the state’s FY 2016–2017 DMC reduction efforts.

Additionally, the preferred type of data is the duplicated count, one reflecting the total number of youth contacts with the justice system. Indicate whether statewide and local data reflect a duplicated or unduplicated count (i.e., one youth who has juvenile justice system contact regardless of the number of contacts). If the state does not know whether the counts are duplicated or unduplicated, it must provide a time-limited plan, not to exceed 12 months, of how the state will determine whether the counts are duplicated, unduplicated, or a combination. The time-limited plan must include the following items:

- Current and future barriers to determining whether counts are duplicated or unduplicated.
  - The agencies, organizations, or individual(s) that will determine whether the contacts are duplicated, unduplicated, or a combination.
  - The anticipated outcomes.
- (c) Use the RRI Tracking Sheet (see example in Appendix H) to interpret and analyze the values that should drive decisionmaking:

(1) Identify the RRI values that are statistically significant. This also includes discussing statistical parity (i.e., how many fewer or more minority youth would it take to show statistical equality with white non-Hispanic and/or majority youth; see “Volume Issues” tab in the RRI Spreadsheet).

(2) From statistically significant RRI values, identify those with the greatest magnitude (i.e., more than 1.0 for arrests, referrals to court, cases resulting in secure detention, cases petitioned, cases resulting in delinquent findings, cases resulting in secure correctional facilities, and transfers to adult court, and less than 1.0 for diversion and probation); that is, those that reflect the greatest degree of disproportionate contact.

- (3) From among statistically significant RRI values and those with the greatest magnitude, identify those that involve the greatest volume of activity; that is, the largest number of minority youth who potentially may be affected.
- (4) If applicable, compare the RRI values noted in step 2 or 3 above with the range of RRI values nationally. (Note: See the National Disproportionate Minority Contact Databook and/or the “Compare Counties” and “States” tabs in the RRI Spreadsheet.)
- (5) Examine the local context for each of the RRI values identified in steps 1 to 4 above to consider which jurisdictions may be the more feasible target populations for activities to reduce DMC. Note: See Chapter 1 in the Disproportionate Minority Contact Technical Assistance Manual, 4th edition, for the discussion and list of contextual considerations.

Phase II: Assessment/Diagnosis. When a state or territory identifies that DMC exists, it must undertake an assessment. States should also undertake targeted assessments when they note significant changes in the RRIs at particular contact/decision points or after they implement significant changes in laws, procedures, and policies within the juvenile justice system that negatively impact DMC. A DMC assessment is a comprehensive analysis using advanced research methodologies to identify the contributing factors, examine minority overrepresentation, and explain differences at all contact stages of the juvenile justice system. It should also include recommendations for specific delinquency prevention, intervention, and systems improvement strategies.

Respond to the following:

- (1) Provide a brief summary of the findings of the statewide DMC assessment study published from 2005–2014 that includes any identified contributing mechanisms, findings, and recommendations. If your state has not done so, submit a copy of the assessment study and/or a link to access it.
- (2) If a statewide DMC assessment study has not been conducted or completed, provide a time-limited plan, not to exceed 12 months, for completing this assessment and/or any technical assistance needed. The plan must include the following items:
  - Current and future barriers.
  - The agencies, organizations, or individual(s) that will complete the assessment study.
  - The anticipated outcomes of the assessment.

Note: If a state requested an extension and OJJDP approved it, attach documentation (Attachment #3: OJJDP-approved DMC assessment study extension).

Phase III: Intervention. Each state's DMC Compliance Plan shall, where DMC has been demonstrated and contributing factors determined, provide an intervention plan for reduction. Base the plan on the results of the identification data and assessment study findings (if applicable). The state should also target comprehensive prevention and intervention programming and system improvement efforts to communities where DMC is most prevalent and those contact stages of the system where major disproportionate rates occur. Ultimately, the intervention efforts should address any individual, family, community, systemic (juvenile justice, education, etc.) factors and related laws and policies that may contribute to DMC.

Respond to the following:

(1) Progress made in FY 2016. Discuss the status of each of the planned activities in the FY 2016 DMC Compliance Plan. States that have implemented local delinquency prevention and systems improvement strategies should complete this section for each individual locality. States must also demonstrate that funded activities are directly related to the RRI Index values that are statistically significant, those with the greatest magnitude, and the greatest volume of activity statewide and for at least three local targeted reduction sites (unless granted a waiver by OJJDP). These activities also must be directly related to states' DMC assessment study findings (if a study has been completed).

(a) Which activities have been implemented? Discuss progress made and include planned Formula Grant-supported activities with DMC-specific goals and objectives.

(b) Which activities, if any, were not implemented? Discuss the reasons that prevented implementation and plans to overcome these obstacles.

(2) States that have identified one or more local jurisdiction(s) as DMC reduction sites but have not implemented delinquency prevention, intervention, and/or systems improvement activities must provide a time-limited plan, not to exceed 12 months, of when implementation will occur. The plan must include the following items:

- Current and future barriers to implementation.
- The agencies, organizations, or individual(s) that will determine which strategies will be implemented and why.
- The anticipated outcomes.

Phase IV: Evaluation. States must evaluate the efficacy of their efforts to address DMC. At a minimum, all intervention strategies to reduce DMC shall include specific goals, objectives, activities, and selected performance measures.

Some states have conducted formal process and/or outcome evaluations of DMC activities. If applicable, include a brief summary of findings of any formal process or outcome evaluation related to DMC activities (i.e., those that contain a specific research methodology to evaluate the program's effectiveness or implementation process).

If no formal process or outcome evaluation has been conducted, explain why evaluation of any DMC delinquency prevention, intervention, and/or systems improvement strategies has not occurred and how the state determines whether strategies are reducing DMC.

Performance measures. States must also provide a list of the required output, outcome, and/or other applicable DMC performance measures in this section. The performance measures are available here.

Phase V: Monitoring. States and their selected localities must monitor and track changes in DMC trends over time and/or conduct site monitoring visits to identify emerging critical issues to determine whether there has been a reduction or increase. The ultimate question that jurisdictions must answer is: Has DMC been reduced? Whether such a change is directly attributable to specific DMC efforts is a secondary issue that requires a specific evaluation study.

Respond to the following:

- (1) Include a time-limited plan, not to exceed 6 months, of how the state will monitor and track changes in DMC trends over time.
- (2) Include a description of how the state will monitor any delinquency prevention, intervention, and/or systems improvement activities implemented to reduce DMC.
- (3) Indicate who will monitor these activities. If this is a DMC coordinator, indicate if the position is full or part time.
- (4) Provide a timeline of current and/or future monitoring activities.

DMC reduction plan. As stated above in the Intervention section, states must also demonstrate that funded activities are directly related to the RRI Index values that are statistically significant, those with the greatest magnitude, and the greatest volume of activity statewide and for at least three local targeted reduction sites (unless granted a waiver by OJJDP). These activities also must be directly related to states' DMC assessment study findings (if a study has been completed).

- (1) States must specify the timeline for FY 2016 to conduct delinquency prevention, intervention, and systems improvement strategies.
- (2) States must specify the funding amount, funding source(s), and specific line items designated to conduct delinquency prevention, intervention, and systems improvement strategies.
