SECTION 5: OPTIONAL QUESTIONS Section 5 asks optional questions about evaluation, data collection, programs and services, and local best practices. There are 9 questions in this section. Responses will be used by the BSCC and its justice-system partners to better understand the needs of counties. If the CCP chooses not to answer an optional question, please respond "Decline to Respond."

15. Describe the process the CCP uses to determine potential programs and/or services for local implementation using Realignment funds. > Providers and agencies are asked to provide information regarding the target population, criminogenic need, desired program outcomes, and available evidence that demonstrates the program is likely effective at the outset of any request for Realignment funds.

16. Does the county evaluate the effectiveness (as defined locally) of programs and/or services funded with its Public Safety Realignment allocation? Check the appropriate answer to the left of the list.

Yes

If "Yes," explain how.

> The County of Santa Barbara remains committed to evaluating the effectiveness of programs and services. In FY2023-2024 the Santa Barbara County Probation Department will expand on a 2017 study of its Correctional Offender Management Profiling for Alternative Sanctions (COMPAS) risk and need assessment instrument to inform if adjustments are needed to improve the clinical utility of the assessment by gender, race, and/or ethnicity. Additionally, data gathered from the research study will be used to determine if predictive validity in distinguishing recidivists from non-recidivists would be improved by moving to the COMPAS-Revised (COMPAS-R) assessment tool. As the name suggests, the COMPAS-R is a revised version of the COMPAS that combines dynamic needs and historical factors for a single score to assess recidivism risk. Although not funded with its Public Safety Realignment allocation, this study will ensure the Santa Barbara County Probation Department is effective in ensuring public safety through the appropriate management and rehabilitative programming of justice-involved individuals.

In FY 2022-2023, the Santa Barbara County Probation Department and Sheriff's Office partnered with the California Policy Lab (CPL) to understand how policy and practice responses to Covid-19 impacted criminal justice outcomes and the extent to which the system is still impacted by and responding to these dynamics in an effort to inform future policy and practice.

In FY 2020-21, the University of Cincinnati Corrections Institute (UCCI) was contracted to assess the extent to which the Probation Department adheres to best practices in community supervision with UCCI's evidence-Based CPC-CSA, also known as the Correctional Program Checklist – Community Supervision Agency. The report, finalized September 27, 2021 includes an outline of the department's strengths-what it is doing consistent with the research on effective interventions- as well as those areas that need improvement. The final report includes specific recommendations to enhance the effectiveness of the services delivered by the department. The criteria UCCI uses is based on empirically derived principles of effective programs and all of the indicators included in their assessment have been found to be correlated with reductions in recidivism.

Prior to UCCI, Health Management Associates (HMA) was selected in 2018 as the evaluator to inform the Community Corrections Partnership (CCP) and the local criminal justice system of the effectiveness of Public Safety Realignment implementation. For the six years prior, from 2011 through 2017, the Santa Barbara County Probation Department contracted with the University of California, Santa Barbara to evaluate Public Safety Realignment (AB109) and provide recommendations to the Community Corrections Partnership (CCP) and the local criminal justice system on strategies to improve local practices to reduce recidivism for Realigned offenders. To the extent possible, the evaluations have identified influential demographics, program elements, and intervention efforts that reduce recidivism and include recommendations and priority areas for future treatment interventions and supervision strategies.

Published evaluation reports are available to the public on the Probation Department's website at www.sbprobation.org.

17. Does the county consider evaluation results when funding programs and/or services? Check the appropriate answer to the left of the list.

Yes

If "Yes," explain how.

> Evaluations are utilized by the CCP Workgroup to guide and improve the County's collective practice. The findings are presented to the CCP for discussion of the effectiveness of interventions in accomplishing the established goals of the CCP. The information also guides subsequent funding and policy decisions.

18. Does the county use BSCC definitions (average daily population, conviction, length of stay, recidivism, and/or treatment program completion rates) when collecting data? Check yes or no to the left of each BSCC Definition listed, as applicable.

21. What challenges does the county face in meeting the above program and service needs?

> Challenges in meeting program and service needs include staff turnover within County departments and community-based services; integrating data across agencies; identifying effective strategies to increase community engagement; and a collaborative approach to reentry and discharge planning services across multiple agencies through central points of coordination.

22. What programmatic changes and/or course corrections has the CPP made in the implementation of Public Safety Realignment that it believes other counties would find helpful?	> Santa Barbara County has increased its investment in supporting strategies and innovations beyond and in compliment to traditional community supervision and evidence-based programming. This includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Diversion programs such as the Santa Barbara County Neighborhood Restorative Justice Program (NRJP), a restorative justice-based program that serves as a pre-filing diversion for certain misdemeanor offenses and infractions. Benefits of a Neighborhood Restorative Justice Program include diverting low-level offenses through a restorative justice process and avoid court action. The pilot program served 37 first-time offenders in the City of Goleta for the period of July 1, 2022, through December 31, 2022. The NRJP uses a victim-centered approach to better meet the needs of victims and strengthen ties between the offender and others, including the community, thereby promoting resistance from crime for participating offenders and increasing satisfaction with the justice system for participating victims. In 2023, the NRJP was awarded additional funding to expand the service countywide. • Expansion of supportive reentry services through programs like Holistic Defense within the Community Defender Division of the Public Defender's Office. In this program, Holistic Defense Advocates work with individuals in correctional facilities, employing interdisciplinary approaches, capacity building, and improve community-based systems to achieve more successful legal and life outcomes for justice-involved clients. • Investment in a community mental health outreach program, "Familiar Faces." This multi-disciplinary effort will be led by Probation and involve staff from the Public Defender's Office and BeWell. This team will provide community intervention to high utilizers who cycle in and out of custody and provide immediate connections to services through a case management model. • Early intervention to justice-involved individuals through Probation supervision of clients released as part of the Sheriff's Office Alternative Sentencing Program. The split of the program into two components – referral and screening, handled by the Santa Barbara Sheriff's Office, and community supervision and case management, handled by Probation - allows each agency to offer its respective expertise to this population, to enhance community safety and client outcomes.

23. Describe a local best practice or promising program that has produced positive results. If data exists to support the results, please share.

> On July 1, 2022, the Santa Barbara Sheriff's Office (SBSO) and the County of Santa Barbara Probation Department began a collaborative effort to monitor eligible individuals serving their Court ordered custodial commitments via electronic monitoring in-lieu of physical incarceration on its Alternative Sentencing program. The SBSO continues to accept and process all alternative sentencing applications, determine eligibility, and book/receive individuals prior to referring to Probation. The Probation Department supervises these individuals in the community using electronic monitoring and field contacts as needed and provides assessment of the individual's needs using an evidence-based assessment, and subsequently refers individuals to community-based programs as applicable. Substance abuse services are consistently identified as a top need of the population and have driven referrals to community organizations. The split of the program into two components – referral and screening, handled by the SBSO, and community supervision and case management, handled by Probation - allows each agency to offer its respective expertise to this population, which enhances community safety and client outcomes. While under supervision of the Probation Department, 840 individuals exited the ASP, with 94% exiting successfully.
