SUBJECT: SENATE BILL 823: YOUTH PROGRAMS AND FACILITIES GRANT PROGRAM: STAKEHOLDER INPUT SESSION – ZOOM: MON. MARCH 22, 2021, 4 PM – 6 PM

The BSCC is hosting a virtual Stakeholder Input Session on the development of the $9.6 M Request for Application (RFA) for the Youth Programs and Facilities Grant Program portion of Senate Bill 823 (Chapter 337, Statutes of 2020).

The BSCC has been developing the RFA for this grant on an expedited timeline to ensure that funding for counties can be made available as soon as possible. However, during the recent written public comment period, we received several requests for an opportunity for stakeholders to provide additional input into the RFA content and process. In response, the BSCC has scheduled a Stakeholder Input Session.

Topics for Discussion at Stakeholder Input Session

During the Stakeholder Input Session, we will provide the opportunity for comment and discussion on the following topics:

1. Proposed Regional Projects of up to $1 million each to address infrastructure needs to serve:

- a. Youthful Sex Offenders
  - b. Female youth
  - c. Seriously mentally ill youth
2. Proposed funding to all counties to address a wide range of diverse infrastructure needs
  3. Additional input into the RFA content and process

Further information on the draft RFA will be posted to the BSCC website in the next few days. Please share information about this Stakeholder Input Session with people and organizations you think would be interested.
