

Juvenile Justice Crime Prevention Act - Youthful Offender Block Grant
 2019 Expenditure and Data Report
 Due Date: October 1, 2019

On or before October 1, 2019, each county is required to submit to the Board of State & Community Corrections (BSCC) a report on its Juvenile Justice Crime Prevention Act (JJCPA) and Youthful Offender Block Grant (YOBG) programs during the preceding year. For JJCPA this requirement can be found at Government Code (GC) Section 30061(b)(4)(C) and for YOBG it can be found at Welfare & Institutions Code Section (WIC) 1961(c). These code sections both call for a consolidated report format that includes a description of the programs and other activities supported by JJCPA and/or YOBG funds, an accounting of all JJCPA and YOBG expenditures during the prior fiscal year, and countywide juvenile justice trend data.

Prior to submitting this report save the file using the following naming convention: "(County Name) 2019 JJCPA-YOBG Report." For example, Yuba County would name its file "Yuba 2019 JJCPA-YOBG Report".

Once the report is complete, attach the file to an email and send it to: JJCPA-YOBG@bscc.ca.gov. All reports will be posted to the BSCC website. We encourage you to review your report for accuracy before sending it to the BSCC. Please do NOT change the report form to a PDF document.

Government Code Section 30061(b)(4)(C)(iv) & WIC Section 1961(c)(3)

Provide a summary description or analysis, based on available information, of how the programs, placements, services, strategies or system enhancements funded by JJCPA-YOBG have, or may have, contributed to, or influenced, the juvenile justice data trends identified in this report.

Madera County continues to experience a downward trend in juvenile crimes and arrests. Such programs provided under evidenced based practices (EBP) and the continued use of risk assessment based supervision have greatly contributed to this downward trend. As a result, juvenile arrests dropped from 337 in 2017 to 252 in 2018. Further, the funds being used for existing (EBP) programs which are all research based have proven effective in achieving desired outcomes of reducing arrest rates and the number of petitions filed in juvenile court. The Juvenile Division uses the JAIS Assessment Tool and this instrument has been validated to best predict a juvenile's risk to recidivate and to identify his/her needs. As such, caseloads continue to be manageable as cases are divided up into three supervision categories: low risk, moderate risk, and high risk. As such, probation officers are more effective delivering services such as referrals to community based agencies, monitoring, substance abuse services, mental health, mentoring, and work readiness programs. Our contacts in the community continue to increase, and we continue to offer our youths alternative solutions to change their delinquent mindset by avoiding incarceration.

In addition, juvenile probation officers and staff continue to be better equipped to insure quality assurance as granted funds pay for more training that is based on (EBP). As such, the youth and their families are the beneficiaries of our best trained efforts towards improvement of services we deliver to the community. Further, we continue to offer prevention/intervention programs that focus on keeping youth out of the juvenile justice system instead of keeping them in it. We continue to foster successful partnerships with local law enforcement agencies. We continue to focus on school attendance and grade advancement through our partnerships with local school districts, and we also continue to improve programs based on data analysis. We are constantly using data from qualitative and quantitative surveys to develop best practices at our day reporting program, academy aftercare program, school restorative justice efforts, curfew operations, truancy prevention, warrant apprehension operations, mentoring programs, and electronic monitoring programs. We also have a continued commitment to educate officers about organizations that work with youth and parents to prevent juvenile justice involvement. Much success comes with establishing relationships with community based agencies. One agency identified has been Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central California which is a community based mentoring program to assist early intervention of local troubled youth. Another new program implemented is Adverse Childhood Experiences (A.C.E.s) which focuses on coping with past trauma experiences. As we continue to serve the community with these funded services, our efforts are rewarded as juvenile delinquency continues its overall downward trend.

CampOne PTE mental health clinician was assigned to the Correctional Academy and Court Day Program. The clinician provided individual and group therapy with academy cadets and day reporting participants. The clinician also provided family therapy during the offenders' placement in the programs. There were fewer offenders recommitted to the academy for remediation. We accomplished short term recidivism reduction of high risk juvenile offenders through the camp's education, physical training and counseling programs. A downfall of having a part time clinician limited the ability to provide family therapy in the evening, after 5 pm. The grant funded salaries of the mental health clinician and related supplies and equipment at that location, as well as the related curriculum i.e A.R.T, A.C.E.s and incentives i.e. sporting events, trips and etc.

One FTE Juvenile Detention Program/Transport Officer transported detained juvenile offenders from the Juvenile Detention Facility to Court, various appointments, and other County detention facilities. The officer also transported cadets and wards to and from placements and transportation sites such as community service details. The juvenile offenders were all transported safely to and from their destination. The grant funded the one FTE Juvenile Detention Officer III salary/benefits and also overtime salary, computer, monitors, ammunition, flashlight, handcuff, training tuition fees, A.R.T/A.C.E.s curriculum and office supplies.

In addition, this officer was the lead person for our Aftercare Team Meetings (A.T.M.s). This transitional release team meeting occurs 2 weeks prior to the youth release. The meeting is designed to better prepare the youth back into his/her community with better tools to succeed. Further, this officer completes in-custody case plans on all youths upon 30 days of facility commitment. The case plan serves as a guide to which counseling services the youth receives while in-custody.

One Deputy Probation Officer and one Probation Program Specialist worked with juvenile offenders ordered into the Court Day Program and also with offenders located at an alternative education school site within our Juvenile Justice Campus. These staff members were part of team that facilitated cognitive programs such as A.R.T., A.C.E.s, and Forward Thinking. The staff also referred youths to both mentoring programs and job readiness programs provided by Work Force Development. Additionally, the program provided positive alternatives through after school programming by giving juvenile offenders viable tools and skills while limiting their idle down time during after school hours which directly reduced the recidivism rate. The department purchased equipment/supplies required to run the evidenced based program materials and incentives for the youths which included field trips, snacks, gift cards, sports equipment, and end of program celebrations. The department also purchased office supplies, bus tickets for students, and safety equipment.

Seven FTE Probation officers supervised high risk youth offenders which may have been transitioned from the residential placement, foster care, Correctional Academy or Juvenile Hall. Other youths supervised may have transitioned to the Day Reporting Program where they participated in evidenced based programs such as Youth Empowerment Programs, Group Counseling and Battle for Change behavior modification programs. Referrals were also made to mentoring and job readiness/training programs provided by Work Force Development. Fewer juvenile youth were recommitted to the camp or hall for violations of probation. More offenders served their violations in the home and were provided more evidenced based programs that teach them to make better choices. Equipment/supplies were purchased to operate evidenced based program such as A.R.T., A.C.E.s, and Word on the Street materials. We purchased incentives such as field trips, gift cards, sports equipment, and end of program celebrations. We also purchased the officers safety equipment and office supplies.

All juveniles coming through the Juvenile Court System were assessed using the JAIS assessment tool which is an evidence based tool and provided services and recommendations accordingly. Ultimately the most critical offenders were identified and supervision levels are based risk/needs scores. Subsequently, within six months, all juvenile offenders have a reassessment done to determine any changes in risk scores. Further, NCCD conducts continuous JAIS assessment tool training and assistance for new staff and updates for seasoned staff. Assessments and reassessments continue to be done, which led us to identify more specific and individualized needs for the offenders. We were able to concentrate more on what was needed and focus more on the moderate to high risk juvenile offenders. Funds are used annually for assessment maintenance and training for the JAIS Assessment tool that works in conjunction with our system of case management.

The Department sponsored Big Brothers Big Sisters with over 175 Madera County youths being supported through JJCPA funds. These youths are identified by their school as being at risk and lacking the resources at home to be successful both in school and in the community. Probation staff and friends of probation are trained volunteer "Bigs" who share time with the youth. The Bigs mentored and participated in community activities. The benefits of the probation being involved led to having more at risk youth that were matched with mentors. Funds are used to pay one FTE BBBS staff that coordinated with school sites, interview youth, teachers, officers, etc. The staff also trained volunteers and provide ongoing support to mentors and participants. Also, BBBS hosted seasonal events for the mentors and participants.

Electronic monitoring services are contracted through Behavioral Interventions (BI). Electronic monitoring serves an alternative to incarceration for youthful offenders by providing electronic supervision for youth released from juvenile hall or otherwise sentenced to this additional condition of probation. This alternative is used to monitor youths released from early from juvenile hall and as a component of both the court day school program and correctional academy aftercare.

Juvenile Arson Prevention: Youth who have committed arson offenses are referred to complete an evidence based fire starter prevention and intervention curriculum. Cornerstone Counseling provides the service to the local youth.

Pathways to Recovery: In collaboration with Madera County Behavioral Health Services and Cornerstone Counseling a youth sex offender counseling program was developed. There is a continued need to effectively treat the rising number of youth sex offenders being placed on probation in the county. The "Pathways" treatment model is an evidenced based model that consists of a cognitive behavioral framework for persons with sexual behavior problems. The offender's family and/or caregivers were included in the treatment process as means of developing their ability and understanding of how to support the offender throughout the entirety of their treatment process.

More youths were referred and more families received focused interventions this past fiscal year. The Department also purchased office equipment and supplies.
