

Juvenile Justice Crime Prevention Act - Youthful Offender Block Grant
2017 Expenditure and Data Report
Due Date: October 1, 2017

On or before October 1, 2017, each county is required to submit to the Board of State & Community Corrections (BSCC) a report on its Juvenile Justice Crime Prevention Act (JJCPA) and Youthful Offender Block Grant (YOBG) programs during the preceding year. For JJCPA this requirement can be found at Government Code (GC) Section 30061(b)(4)(C) and for YOBG it can be found at Welfare & Institutions Code Section (WIC) 1961(c). These code sections both call for a consolidated report format that includes a description of the programs and other activities supported by JJCPA and/or YOBG funds, an accounting of all JJCPA and YOBG expenditures during the prior fiscal year, and countywide juvenile justice trend data.

Prior to submitting this report save the file using the following naming convention: "(County Name) 2017 JJCPA-YOBG Report." For example, Yuba County would name its file "Yuba 2017 JJCPA-YOBG Report".

Once the report is complete, attach the file to an email and send it to: JJCPA-YOBG@bscc.ca.gov. All reports will be posted to the BSCC website following a brief technical review.

JRC provides intensive supervision and treatment for substance abuse to these youth as an alternative to incarceration. Orange County first implemented the program in September 1999. The JJCPA funding has enabled the program to increase the number of participants served and enhance several of the program components. There are five program phases, including an initial 30-day orientation period. Mandatory requirements for youth in the program include: participation in weekly individual and group therapy sessions, attendance at weekly self-help meetings, weekly reporting to the probation officer for progress checks and drug testing, regular attendance in school with no behavior problems reported, compliance with all court-ordered terms and conditions and regularly scheduled weekly, bi-monthly, or monthly court appearances for progress reviews. Juvenile Recovery Court Collaborators: District Attorney, Health Care Agency, Juvenile Court, Parent Empowerment Program, Probation Department and Public Defender. The primary goals are to increase sobriety and reduce recidivism while reducing the reliance on incarceration. Participants can complete the program in a minimum of nine months. When a youth graduates, all charges and stayed time are dismissed and probation is terminated.

The DCI collaborators: Orange County Sheriff's Department, Probation Department, Pepperdine Resource, Youth Diversion and Education (PRYDE). PRYDE staff provide prompt intake assessment, pre-petition counseling, monitored supervision, intervention and diversion services, and program participation at the community level to serve youth who are arrested and brought into OCSD facilities for intake. PRYDE staff offer timely assessment and a progression of intervention services to these youth and their families in a location near their homes. Additionally, the probation officer assigned to DCI cases provides closer supervision and monitoring from the point of referral to probation for an assessment through program exit for juvenile offenders assigned sanctions or placed on informal probation. Further, informal consultations take place among the on-site operations staff for purposes of making more informed decisions about certain cases. The primary goal of DCI is to reduce the number of at-risk juveniles that progress further in the juvenile justice system through prompt assessment and linkage to appropriate services at the earliest possible point.

The Truancy Response Program (TRP) is a cooperative effort to address the problem of chronic truancy in Orange County schools. TRP focuses on chronically truant youth and their families who have failed to respond to the traditional efforts at the school district level. It provides a progression of interventions up to and including formal court action including the following: mandatory attendance of truant youth and their parents at school-based group meetings conducted by the DA, school-site consultation by the probation officer with a truant youth and his/her parents, referral to probation for a TRP intake evaluation for informal handling initially, placement in one of several "pre-court" TRP interventions monitored by probation, court-ordered placement of the youth on WIC 725 and/or prosecution of the parents. If terminated unsuccessfully, may result in WIC 601 and CDL suspension/delay for 365 days, court-ordered participation of both youth and parents in a Parent Empowerment Program workshop designed to coach parents in effective discipline methods for their children (initiated October 2005), referrals for services such as counseling, parenting skills, and basic housing and shelter needs provided for truancy court families by the Social Services Agency (initiated July 2006). The TRP collaborators: County of Department of Education, CSP (Community Service Programs), District Attorney, Juvenile Court, Parent Empowerment Program, Probation Department, Public Defender, School Districts, Social Services Agency. A primary goal of TRP is to reduce school trancies and absences, thereby increasing the chances of these youths' future success. Because truancy places a youth at risk for delinquency, the program also aims to reduce the number of these youth who go on to commit a crime resulting in a formal 602 application.

The Juvenile Sex offender treatment program housed at Juvenile Hall meets the treatment needs specific to youth who have had sustained findings related to sex offenses. Youth who have been ordered committed and are awaiting placement also received treatment while awaiting transfer to a camp program.

When the population permits, the Sex Offender Unit is designed to house sex offender wards separately from the general population. As a specialized unit, youth are provided with weekly group and individual counseling to address their court-ordered Sex Offender Therapy. A licensed clinician provides therapy based on the evidence-based Good Lives treatment curriculum. Also, the pre-camp units are to house youth who have already received their commitments and are pending transfer to one of the three camps that deal primarily with treatment and rehabilitation. YOBG funding for these programs benefit youth in the county juvenile probation system by providing placements, assessments and various direct services such as individual and group counseling, Drug/Alcohol & Mental Health counseling, and Educational & Vocation services to address each minor's social and behavioral needs, as well as evidence based programming.

Additionally, Orange County Probation has implemented the use of cognitive behavioral treatment programs to assist in-custody youth with their rehabilitation, including Thinking for A Change (T4C), Decision Points and Effective Practices in Community Supervision (EPICS). These programs have been proven to reduce recidivism.

Programs are tailored to specific populations such as: PRIDE (Progressive Rehabilitation In A Diverse Environment) program for male youth ages 14-20 years old who receive lengthy commitments due to the seriousness of their offending behavior; and the Leadership Program (Leading through Positive Change) for male youth ages 16 1/2 - 20 years old designed for older youth who require a higher level of need for transition and reentry services. Youth in such programs are assigned to a unit correctional officer, participate in a tiered level system and receive services such as: drug and alcohol counseling, assigned Therapists, employment assistance, housing assistance, Youth Offender Wraparound (YOW) services, college enrollment assistance, family reunification assistance, participation in Regional Occupational Program (ROP), and attendance in a comprehensive academic program. The Juvenile Court Work Program (JCWP) is a detention alternative sanction for youth ages 12-18 years old. Youth can be Court ordered or referred to the program by the assigned Deputy Probation Officer as an informal sanction. Typically, a youth will complete up to 6 eight-hour days (Saturdays only) on a work crew performing weed abatement, graffiti removal, litter pick up and projects benefiting the community.

The Accountability Commitment Program (ACP) is a detention alternative program that operates in collaboration with the Youth Reporting Centers (YRC), the Orange County Health Care Agency (OCHCA) and the Orange County Department of Education (OCDE). ACP youth attend the YRC's daily where they receive academic instruction, mental health and substance abuse treatment along with cognitive behavioral intervention programs. In addition, ACP youth participate in the JCWP on Saturday's as well.

As the JCWP and ACP programs are alternatives to detention, the youth attending the programs engage in community based rehabilitative services. The youth remain in their homes with supportive services, inclusive of access to mental health services, reducing the utilization of detention bed space. Also, the youth remain enrolled in the OCDE community school which reduces truancy and loss of credits due to frequent school transitions.

The JCWP and ACP programs utilize a cognitive behavioral intervention approach to programming. Decision Points program is provided in a group modality while Effective Practices in Community Supervision (EPICS) is provided individually. Also, an incentive and sanction approach is utilized in response to the youth's behaviors.

Pre-Detention and Pre-Disposition Program provides intensive supervision/re-entry services for appropriate youth released in the community while pending adjudication. All participants in the program are supervised utilizing electronic monitoring equipment. This allows youth to be served in a community based setting and to avoid the dangers of detention and further criminalization. Deputy Probation Officers are specifically assigned to this program to assist participants while holding them accountable to the rules of the program. Youth are expected to attend school according to their school's schedule and comply with any counseling orders from the court while on the program.

Orange County Probation is able to better support youth in the community and in their homes. Each officer has face-to-face contact with the youth assigned to their caseloads at least three times a week, if not more, depending on case dynamics. This alternative to detention reduces the exposure to trauma the youth face through incarceration.

A risk assessment tool is used to screen minors for eligibility in the program. Further, Effective Practices in Community Supervision (EPICS) is practiced by officers. This is an evidence-based interviewing and intervention technique supported and taught by the University of Cincinnati.

The youth served are supervised on probation caseloads and are wards of the delinquency court or under pre-wardship programs such as diversion and non-ward probation. Youth can also be in foster care placement, or under supervision by intensive gang violence suppression units.

Additionally, the youth in the county juvenile probation system receive adequate risk and need assessments and appropriate rehabilitative and supervision services. A risk assessment tool is used to assess a ward's level of supervision. The use of Thinking for a Change (T4C) assists youth in successful re-entry into the community. All juvenile probation officers are trained in and using Effective practices in Community Supervision (EPICS) which brings several Evidence Based Practices (EBP) into the office interaction. In addition, the use of positive reinforcement is formalized in an incentive program.
